

So here we are week 3 of the Messiah. It's becoming more and more clear that 'change' to this guy, whoever he is and wherever he's from, merely means an accelerated descent "To the Mouth of Madness" as his (and ours really) bankssta criminal masters rob what's left of the carcass that is "The Late Great USA" not unlike the bunch of bloodthirsty wolves that they are.

On that happy note let's begin.

Things got a little hairy last week but this "conspiracy theorist" can actually categorize this week's shenanigans into three subsets:

1. The gang banker criminal parasites and the impending American Gulag
2. The Doctor Alfred Kinsey sicko crowd
3. Eco wacko/eugenics/gang banker/population control loons

1. The gang banker criminal parasites and the impending American Gulag

My friends, Lord forgive me, but how dumb can people be? Even the commies (the dumb ones that don't see Communism for the logical freight train collision that it is) are disappointed in "The Messiah". This makes perfect sense since in "The THEorY of LIVEvolution" I documented that "communism" is actually an invention of the Wall Street gang bankers like JP Morgan, the Rockefeller family, et. al. This makes perfect sense since Communism is really about centralization of power for a few and pretty much sucks for everyone else in the "imbecile majority" or excuse me "the people". Satanist Karl Marx was just a manipulated tool not unlike the so called Progressives, Ivy League "intellectuals", ultra liberals and other morons like the following:

Obama prepares another trillion-dollar bank bailout (World Socialist Web Site, wsws.org, 2/3/09)

While most media attention is focused this week on the Senate debate on the economic stimulus package, the Obama administration is preparing to roll out a new plan to bail out the banks, involving a trillion dollars or more in public assets

Well aware of popular opposition to the Wall Street bailout, the White House and the media are engaged in a calculated campaign to soften up public opinion and pave the way for a taxpayer handout to the financial elite even bigger than the $700 billion already doled out in the Troubled Asset Relief Program (TARP), which was rushed through Congress last autumn with the support of then-presidential candidate Obama. The total cost of government cash infusions, loans and guarantees to the major banks and financial firms, already estimated at $8 trillion, will soar even higher, by far eclipsing the money allocated in the so-called stimulus and recovery program.

Okay not so bad so far...

In other words, the ruling elite will emerge from this process richer than ever. The American people—who have no responsibility for the economic disaster—will be left to pay the bill through drastic cuts in social benefits, including bedrock programs like Social Security and Medicare, and a continuous erosion of their jobs and living standards.

The Wall Street crisis and the government response have exposed the reality of class relations in America.

Okay I still can agree with this...but I see where these commies are going...

No bankers are being grilled by Congress. There is no talk of criminal investigations or prosecutions. Instead, those who have played a central role in the Wall Street bailout, such as the new treasury secretary, Timothy Geithner, are being brought into the Obama administration...

And here we go with the commie trash...

The economic crisis is the result of the failure of the capitalist profit system. It was prepared over decades in which the American ruling elite dismantled much of basic industry in order to obtain higher levels of profit through ever more parasitic and reckless forms of financial speculation.

No progressive solution to the crisis can be found within the framework of the capitalist system.

This can be achieved only through the independent social and political mobilization of the working class. Mass resistance..including strikes, plant occupations and demonstrations.

So here we have the idiocy of the commies in a nutshell, no pun intended: the word “progressive” as the “the working class” organizing for “mass resistance” sounds like anarchy which results in martial law which results in more anarchy which results in more martial law.... (see Rules for Radicals link on the Mystery, Babylon USA page) Or you can just have the Politburo distributing “equality” to the “workers”. But wait isn’t a “Socialist Equality Party” contradictory as it means a very small group is in charge of “the workers” aka, the “imbecile majority”?

Look my friends this elucidates the greatness and the true rebellion of our Founding Fathers: believe in God and His law as you rule yourselves, keep the government small and mobilize in force to provide for the “common defense” when the time arises.

Let’s see here speaking of martial law by the COMMUNIST inspired Barak Obama (and his mega rich gang banker parasite megalomaniacs a la David Rockefeller):

Bill creates detention camps in U.S. for 'emergencies'
Sweeping, undefined purpose raises worries about military police state
(worldnetdaily.com 2/1/09)

Rep. Alcee L. Hastings, D-Fla., has introduced to the House of Representatives a new bill, H.R. 645, calling for the secretary of homeland security to establish no fewer than six national emergency centers for corralling civilians on military installations.

The proposed bill, which has received little mainstream media attention, appears designed to create the type of detention center that those concerned about use of the military in domestic affairs fear could be used as concentration camps for political dissidents, such as occurred in Nazi Germany.

Speaking of the Government gulag here's one woman lucky enough to escape what the gang bankers have in mind for "The Late Great USA".

Moving back to Uncle Sam's plantation (worldnetdaily.com 2/7/09)

Six years ago, I wrote a book called "Uncle Sam's Plantation." I wrote the book to tell my own of what I saw living inside the welfare state and my own transformation out of it.

A vast sea of perhaps well-intentioned government programs, all initially set into motion in the 1960s, that were going to lift the nation's poor out of poverty.

A benevolent Uncle Sam welcomed mostly poor black Americans onto the government plantation. Those who accepted the invitation switched mindsets from "How do I take care of myself?" to "What do I have to do to stay on the plantation?"

Instead of solving economic problems, government welfare socialism created monstrous moral and spiritual problems – the kind of problems that are inevitable when individuals turn responsibility for their lives over to others.

The legacy of American socialism is our blighted inner cities, dysfunctional inner city and broken black families.

Through God's grace, I found my way out. It was then that I understood what freedom meant and how great this country is.

I thought we were on the road to moving socialism out of our poor black communities and replacing it with wealth-producing American capitalism. But, incredibly, we are going in the opposite direction.

Instead of poor America on socialism becoming more like rich American on capitalism, rich America on capitalism is becoming like poor America on socialism.

The author Star Parker is a former welfare mother turned devout Christian so she speaks from experience of the modern American Gulag, the modern welfare state. But she may not see the big picture. In the “The THEorY of LIVEvolution” I documented how many times the gang banker Freemason/Illuminati elite utilized the word “great” and made the conclusion that banksta lap dog President LBJ’s “Great” Society is nothing more than a preview from THEM to us on our Orwellian nightmare collectivist slave Gulag USA future:

Uncle Sam has welcomed our onto the plantation and they have said, "Thank you, Suh."

By many accounts of “our” Congressional Representatives the sock puppet George W. Bush’s banksta masters like Treasury Secretary Paulson and others threatened martial law if the original so called stimulus wasn’t passed, so not all are requesting the Federal Government’s “help”.

Now, instead of thinking about what creative things need to be done to serve customers, they are thinking about what they have to tell Massah in order to get their cash.

There is some kind of irony that this is all happening under our first black president on the 200th anniversary of the birthday of Abraham Lincoln.

Worse, socialism seems to be the element of our new young president. And maybe even more troubling, our corporate executives seem happy to move onto the plantation.

Or how about the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964 – The War on Poverty – which, President Johnson said, "... does not merely expand old programs or improve what is already being done. It charts a new course. It strikes at the causes, not just the consequences of poverty."

Trillions of dollars later, black poverty is the same. But black families are not, with triple the incidence of single-parent homes and out of wedlock births.

It's not complicated. Americans can accept Barack Obama's invitation to move onto the plantation. Or they can choose personal responsibility and freedom.

Huh. Maybe Founding Father great Patrick Henry, who solemnly stated that this Government (the legal one from a bygone era) was founded on “the Gospel of Jesus Christ” had a point ... “Give me liberty or give me death”....

Here's another goody from "conspiracy theorist" Alex Jones' web site (Hint: banksters = gang bankers):

Fed Secretly Lends $2 Trillion to Banksters without Oversight (infowars.com, 2/3/09)

It turns out the bankers are not finished looting the American tax payer. As the American News Project video posted below reveals, the Federal Reserve has doled out around $2 trillion to unknown suspects behind our backs, described as a "staggering, enormous, unprecedented sum of money." Of course, we have a pretty good idea who the recipients are, never mind all the secrecy — the international bankers, the same people who took more than $8.5 trillion under threat last year from your children and grand-children.

If not for freshman Congressman Alan Grayson of Florida, you might not be any wiser about this latest scam. In the video, Grayson grills Fed vice-boss Donald Kohn over the "lending" of an addition $2 trillion to unspecified "institutions," a highly unusual situation because our congress critters rarely — with the notable exception of Rep. Ron Paul — take on bankster operatives at the Fed or the Treasury. "I guess I haven't got the memo on questions not to ask and people not to question closely," Grayson told the American News Project. In fact, Congress has no oversight of the private banker held Federal Reserve.

Of course this article quotes "conspiracy theorist" and Founding Father Thomas Jefferson:

It also turns us into debt slaves. In this regard, it is worth repeating Thomas Jefferson's warning, written in a letter to the Secretary of the Treasury Albert Gallatin in 1802:

"I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies. If the American people ever allow private banks to control the issue of their currency, first by inflation, then by deflation, the banks and corporations that will grow up around [the banks] will deprive the people of all property until their children wake-up homeless on the continent their fathers conquered. The issuing power should be taken from the banks and restored to the people, to whom it properly belongs."

So in the last few article alone I've quoted "conspiracy theorists" Patrick Henry and Thomas Jefferson. Is it any wonder why the Rockefeller gang bankers were so enamored with anti-Founding Father and humanist John Dewey? Is it any wonder why the American gang bankers led by the Rockefellers, JP Morgan, Andrew Carnegie, etc. and their "Progressive" and socialist Ivy League minions were so interested in eviscerating the real rebels of history our Founding Fathers as documented by heroic Senator Joe McCarthy's Reece Commission? Is it surprising to see today's lap dog, gang banker boot licking “Progressives” and “liberals” at the gang banker founded Ivy League schools fawning for David Rockefeller’s puppy dog Barak Obama?

Do you think Hank Kissinger, Zbigniew Brzezinski, Timothy Geithner or the other gang bankers at the impregnable “Federal” “Reserve” are going to have their salaries capped by puppy dog/Manchurian candidate/salesman for the suckers in the “imbecile majority”? (Hint: The newspaper boy in the “imbecile majority” will have his pay cut before our criminal masters):

Obama sets executive pay limits with overhaul in mind (reuters.com 2/4/09)

Good one. Just in case you were wondering here’s a peek at the group many of whom are members of at least one of David Rockefeller’s social clubs, Bilderberg Group (see related link on Mystery, Babylon, USA page), Council on Foreign Relations, and/or the Trilateral Commission:

Obama: “Everyone thinks they’re economists” (infowars.com 2/6/09)

Obama made his funny while announcing members of his Economic Recovery Advisory Board — or more precisely, the board cobbled together by his globalist masters. It will be run by none other than Paul A. Volcker, the former Fed mob boss who thinks Americans have been living beyond their means for too long. “It is the United States as a whole that became addicted to spending and consuming beyond its capacity to produce,” Volcker lectured the Economic Club of New York in April, 2008. “It all seemed so comfortable.”

It will all become exceedingly uncomfortable and sooner before later if Volcker and the globalists have their way.

Note: Volcker hits all three Rockefeller social groups, Bilderberg, Council on Foreign Relations and Trilateral Commission.

“Obama adviser Austan Goolsbee told a recent CFR meeting that ‘free trade is not the enemy,’” the Washington Post reported on November 3, 2008.

“Goolsbee is widely reported to have told Obama not to back a compulsory freeze on home mortgage foreclosures to help the struggling middle class in the current depression crisis, as demanded by former candidate John Edwards,” Webster Tarpley wrote on February 4, 2008. Tarpley also reveals Goolsbee’s connection to the elitist occult Skull & Bones club.

Now that’s funny...this “conspiracy theorist” has already tied the death worshipping Skull and Bones Society in with one RC Christian and the anti-10 Commandments of the Georgia Guidestones and the genocidal mother earth loons (see 322, the Georgia Guidestones and the eco wackos link on the bottom of the new age page). Hmmm. I just can’t get over global warming (climate change?) useful idiot Al Gore and the “Age of Aquarius” song at the Democratic National Convention last August. Oh yeah here’s the list of gang bankers “advising” Obama (or more aptly those receiving advice from Bilderberg Group inventor David Rockefeller):

1. William H. Donaldson, former Chairman, SEC (also Carnegie Endowment)
2. Roger W. Ferguson, Jr., President & CEO, TIAA-CREF
3. Robert Wolf, Chairman & CEO, UBS Group Americas
4. David F. Swensen, CIO, Yale University
5. Mark T. Gallogly, Founder & Managing Partner, Centerbridge Partners L.P.
6. Penny Pritzker, Chairman & Founder, Pritzker Realty Group
7. John Doerr, Partner, Kleiner, Perkins, Caufield & Byers
8. Jim Owens, Chairman and CEO, Caterpillar Inc.
9. Monica C. Lozano, Publisher & Chief Executive Officer, La Opinion
10. Charles E. Phillips, Jr., President, Oracle Corporation
11. Anna Burger, Secretary-Treasurer, SEIU
12. Richard L. Trumka, Secretary-Treasurer, AFL-CIO
13. Laura D’Andrea Tyson, Dean, Haas School of Business at the University of California at Berkeley
14. Martin Feldstein, George F. Baker Professor of Economics, Harvard University
15. Jeffrey R. Immelt, CEO, GE

Notice that last one, GE as in General Electric. Recall that GE was swallowed up by banksta JP Morgan, junior in 1894 and currently owns NBC with its ‘green week’ and C(ircus)NBC with its panel of clowns, court jesters, fools and associated “experts” arguing about “our” ponzi scheme fiat economy as if it matters and of course Obama zombies Chris “Hardball/I get a tingle up my leg for Obama” Matthews and Keith Olbermann. Glenn Beck (glennbeck.com) is one of the few in the mainstream snws asking the right questions:

Glenn Beck: GE in bed with Obama (glennbeck.com, 2/6/09)

GLENN: We are crossing into new territory now where government and business are blending into one and that bothers me. It tell you something.

Listen to me. Our founding fathers would be going crazy. They would be printing up leaflets everywhere right now. They would be going crazy.

The GE thing, here they are, they are merging government and business with GE. They've got -- GE, I'm telling you, is going to be bailed out. GE will get all kinds of contracts from the government on green energy and everything else. The CEO of GE has now been appointed, today he's just been appointed as an economic advisor for Barack Obama.

Brian Williams should be shaking in his boots. Now, here's the good side. GE, Stu, have they taken money yet? Weren't they made into -- weren't they given that loophole like American Express was so they can be a bank? GE, GE Finance or GE Capital, didn't they take some money?

My question is would Keith Olbermann be allowed to have a $7 million salary? Because he's with the people, you know.

STU: Right.

GLENN: He's for the little guy. He's the guy who is, he's in there fighting for you against all of these fat cats that are making so much money. Remember, I never have a problem with people making money. I want you to be as rich as you possibly can. God bless America (singing). Keith Olbermann, now, that's a different story. If GE takes money from the government, will they insist that Keith Olbermann does not make $7 million a year? Just wondering. I'm just wondering if Keith Olbermann would say, "You know what, I'm taking taxpayers' money. This is what socialism is all about, shared sacrifice. I'm just wondering." Yeah?

STU: Wouldn't, because he -- what is the wording on this, the way the bailout thing is worded, either a senior or a top executive, correct?

GLENN: Will you go through all of the tapes that you can get your hands on of anything that Keith Olbermann has said about how these scumbags need to make only $500,000 a year.

2. The Doctor Alfred Kinsey sicko crowd

“Doctor” Alfred Kinsey was a (surprise, surprise) ROCKEFELLER supported sicko around the late forties who dabbled in all kinds of niceties like pedophilia and sodomy. His “studies” serve as one of the pillars of the radical homosexual movement and the Dewey/Rockefeller humanist American youth re-education camps umm the public schools’ sex education programs. His name turned up in the Rockefeller game 1984 link on the bottom of the new age page. What a shock that “our” Messiah would promote those that would put “Doctor” Kinsey on a pedestal:

Obama's Justice pick supports porn 'rights': Ogden's clientele, legal arguments, raise alarms (worldnetdaily.com 2/3/09)

President Obama has expressed his belief the U.S. Constitution should be interpreted through the lens of current events, and now he's apparently preparing to install as a senior official at the U.S. Justice Department a lawyer who goes one step further, advocating for constitutional protections for abortionists, pornographers and protesters.

"Ogden is an abortion-on-demand absolutist. He opposes common sense restrictions on abortion, including policies that have significant support from the American people, such as parental notification by minors," the organizations said in a report today.

Also, "Ogden is an absolutist on pornography and obscenity. He opposes common sense restrictions on the ability of pornography peddlers to sell their products. He believes pornography users have a constitutional right to view pornography at a public library."

"David Ogden is a hired gun from Playboy and ACLU," said Brian Burch, president of the pro-family group. "He can't run from his long record of opposing common sense laws protecting families, women, and children. The United States Senate has a responsibility to the American people to insure that Mr. Ogden's full record is fully reviewed before any vote on his nomination."

The group's extensive research on Ogden cites his work on behalf of homosexuality in Lawrence vs. Texas, for Playboy and Penthouse on issues involving pornography and his representation of a company that distributes videos titled "Bubblegum cuties," "Sweet young things," "Young girls" and "Fresh and young."

"He has opposed filters on library computers protecting children from Internet smut, and successfully defended the right of pornographers to produce material with underage children," Burch said.

Obama's Big Porno deputy (worldnetdaily.com 2/6/09)

In its big January 2004 issue, a Playboy headline proclaimed, "We Won!" and drew their flag as displacing our Stars and Stripes over the U.S. Capitol. What did Playboy "win" in Washington, D.C.? In this "We Won" issue, publisher Hugh Hefner outlined how he operated "behind the scenes" to bring U.S. laws in line with Playboy morality. In fact, David Ogden, a Playboy legal hit man with allegiance to the bunny flag may soon be the United States deputy attorney general.

Enough of the negativity surely this "Messiah" for "Change" must have something in his background to get 2 million zombies excited enough to watch him like a bunch of celebrity crazed teenagers....

3. Eco wacko/eugenics/gang banker/population control loons

This guy's weaving of truth and fabrication and his desire (and disturbingly large success) to be everyone's friend discussed in last week's column is beyond alarming.

Obama: Not pro-infanticide? Prove it! Exclusive: Jill Stanek demands government enforce currently unenforced Born Alive Act (worldnetdaily.com 2/4/09)

With increasing volume I've been trying to make the pro-life community understand that aborting babies alive and letting them die or outright killing them is a commonplace – rampant – occurrence in U.S. hospitals and abortion mills despite the 2002 passage of the federal Born Alive Infants Protection Act.

That we get this fact is imperative with the election of Barack Obama as president alongside a Congress now fully controlled by the abortion industry

Mill owner Belkis Gonzalez allegedly cut the baby's cord, placed the baby in a biohazard bag filled with bleach, and tossed the baby in bag onto the clinic roof when an anonymous tipster notified police. Police retrieved the baby nine days later after receiving another tip and positively identified Shanice as Sycloria's daughter via DNA testing. The county medical examiner determined the baby had breathed but failed to label the death a homicide, instead stating the baby died of "extreme prematurity."

I'm convinced every day in America a variation of this horror story is being committed, and often.

Pro-lifers must grasp this is not an uncommon occurrence and rise up to demand a pro-abortion federal government prove it is not pro-infanticide.

Now remember this self-professed "Christian" voted AGAINST something called the Born Alive Infant Abortion Protection Act while in the Illinois State Senate, a move that makes Hillary Clinton look like Mother Theresa. This coupled with the next scene tells this "conspiracy theorist" this guy can say anything to anybody in ways that puts Hillary's husband Bill to shame...WATCH OUT FOR THIS GUY...

Obama stuns pro-lifers with prayer breakfast speech: Says no God condones taking life of 'innocent human being' (worldnetdaily.com 2/5/09)

At the National Prayer Breakfast at the Washington Hilton Hotel this morning, President Obama caught pro-life advocates off guard when he said God wouldn't condone taking the life of an innocent human being.

Now about that Rockefeller/Sanger eugenics/population control complex that served as inspiration to one Bohemian corporal and his band of "race hygiene" merry makers back in the twenties and thirties. (I thought Kenyans were dancing in the streets over their 'native' son oops that lawsuit still contesting "The One's" birthplace is still ongoing)...

Pro-Abortion Marie Stopes Eager for American Funds to Promote Abortion in Kenya (infowars.com 2/3/09)

The leader of the Kenyan division of Marie Stopes, one of the worlds largest abortion providers, has told an AP reporter that he is eager to receive American funds now that President Obama has rescinded the Mexico City Policy.

"Family planning was not given the prominence it needs" when the policy was still in effect, said director Dr. Walter Odhiambo in an AP report.

The Mexico City Policy is a Reagan-era directive that prohibits pro-abortion overseas organizations from receiving American taxpayer dollars. Obama repealed the policy three days after his inauguration, making hundreds of millions in foreign aid money available to such groups.

Pro-life voices in Kenya have denounced the encroachment of the foreign-funded abortion culture as a threat to the deeply pro-life Kenyan people, who are now faced with a bill that would legalize abortion. Kenyan secular and religious leaders have condemned the bill in no uncertain terms, saying that innocent unborn child must not be destroyed for convenience.

“We in Kenya know him (Obama) as a person who is anti-family,” he said, following Obama’s November election victory. “A person who would support abortion. In America they can do all right killing their babies. But they must not associate us with the people who would want our babies to be killed.”

Dr. Karanja said that 90 percent of those in Kenya polled over the last twenty years consider abortion to be an “abomination.”

Dr. Karanja criticized the concept that poorer countries such as Kenya benefitted from organizations pushing population control.

“The only resource we have that is truly ours,” he said, “is our people. Don’t attack them and we’ll be alright. And this administration of Obama, is going to be a nightmare for our people.”

So who was Marie Stopes? Well just in case you still think this all just “conspiracy theory” here’s a useful article:

Marie Stopes: Eugenics by Abortion (abortionabout.com, 2/3/09)

Marie Carmichael Stopes (October 15, 1880 – October 2, 1958) was a Scottish sexologist, eugenicist, and campaigner for women’s rights. A flamboyant and often arrogant figure who considered herself the best authority on the topics of love, marriage, sex, and birth control, Stopes was criticized during her lifetime for advancing ideas that were in sometimes outdated and not proper for all people.

Marie became interested in the subject of birth control after meeting Margaret Sanger, a birth-control campaigner from America. Sanger had converted to socialism and begun publishing her own newspaper where she argued in favor of birth control and abortion. The main theme of her articles was that “no woman can call herself free who doesn’t own and control her own body.” In 1915, when charged with publishing an “obscene and lewd article,” Margaret Sanger fled to Britain and while in London, met Marie Stopes.

Stopes became a prominent campaigner for eugenics, a brutal movement that inflicted massive human rights violations on millions of people. The movement, led by race scientists and financed by private philanthropies such as the Carnegie Institute and the Rockefeller Foundation, was implemented by governments in North America, Europe (particularly Nazi Germany), and Australia, to name a few. Eugenics targeted the poor, mentally ill, blind, ‘promiscuous women’, homosexuals, and entire “racial” groups, such as Blacks, the Roma, and Jews, considering these people as “degenerate” or “unfit.” Eugenics advocated the segregation or institutionalization of such individuals and groups, their sterilization, their “euthanasia,” and in the worst case of Nazi Germany, their mass extermination. The practices engaged in by eugenicists involved violations of privacy, attacks on reputation, violations of the right to life, the right to found a family, and violations of the most fundamental human rights.

Here’s another concerning the Chinese and RU-486 from the “conspiracy theorists” over at the Washington Post:

Chinese to Make RU-486 for U.S.: FDA Has Sought to Shield Source of Abortion Drug (washingtonpost.com 10/12/2000)

SHANGHAI, Oct. 11 — The Hua Lian Pharmaceutical factory emerges from fields of sorghum and green onions an hour's drive south of downtown Shanghai. At quitting time, workers board company buses that take them back to the city. Others leave on bicycles, pedaling toward nearby villages along narrow lanes dotted with oxen.

Despite the tranquil appearance, the Hua Lian plant is a secret factory of sorts. Its name and location are shielded not by Chinese authorities, but by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration, which two weeks ago approved the sale of a product that workers here are preparing to churn out for the American market--the abortion drug RU-486.

RU-486 has been a key ingredient in China's population control strategy for years. Of the estimated 10 million abortions performed annually in China, about half are carried out with RU-486, said Gao Ersheng, director of the Shanghai Institute of Planned Parenthood Research.

With the help of the Rockefeller Foundation and the Bangkok-based Concept Foundation, the company has been working for three years to upgrade its equipment and retrain its staff to meet international standards in order to be permitted to export the drug.

The Concept Foundation was established by the World Health Organization and World Bank in 1989 to assist factories in developing countries to make medical products at low cost for Third World health agencies. The Rockefeller Foundation gave $2 million to the group in 1997 to help Hua Lian and China's state family planning agency upgrade the factory.

We just can't escape that name ROCKEFELLER can we? And of course we have the gang banker infested World Bank and ROCKEFELLER founded UN-dead's World (a-hem) Health Organization in on the act.

Ho-hum just more “conspiracy theory”.

Speaking of the ROCKEFELLERS and 1984 (see link on the bottom of the new age page) the following headlines should be more than a little disturbing (especially when useful eco-idiot Al Gore was recorded telling children to ignore their parents on January 19 as documented on the Glenn Beck program among a few others):

United Nations' threat: No more parental rights Expert: Pact would ban spankings, homeschooling if children object (worldntetdaily.com 2/5/09)

State Brainwashing Children to "Re-Educate" Their Parents for Green Dictatorship (infowars.com 2/5/09)

Pint-Size Eco Police, Making Parents Proud and Sometimes Crazy (nytimes.com, 10/10/08)

"So, how many trees have you planted, Daddy?": They're young, they're green they're militant...they are the eco-kids re-educating their parents (guardian.com, 2/1/09)

And here's one for the global warming loons who think it a bit strange why DAVID ROCKEFELLER would support eugenics and the UN-dead's eco wackos (AND central banks a la the "Federal" "Reserve"):

The Coming food catastrophe (infowars.com 4/5/08)

"There is a new face of hunger,"...

But the worst damage is being done by the rage for "biofuels" that supposedly reduce carbon-dioxide emissions and fight climate change. Thirty percent of this year's U.S. grain harvest will go straight to the ethanol distillery...

And finally Beware the environmental movement, beware the environmental movement (see link on the bottom of the new age page) as Rockefeller minion and Obama "advisor" Henry Kissinger goes off to make some deal with Mother Russia...

Kissinger Sent to Russia to Cut New World Order Deal (infowars.com, 2/6/09)

It is yet another glaring example there is no difference between Bush, Obama, or anybody else anointed by the global elite to serve as presidential window dressing — the Daily Telegraph reports this morning that former Reichsminister of State and Rockefeller minion Henry Kissinger was dispatched by the Obama administration to talk with Russian president Dmitry Medvedev about reducing stockpiles of nuclear warheads.

"The decision to send Mr. Kissinger to Moscow, taken by Mr Obama when he was still president-elect, is part of a plan to overcome probable Republican objections in Congress,” reports Adrian Blomfield, Moscow correspondent for the British newspaper. It is said the “secret negotiations” were conducted in December.

Obama, of course, runs nothing and the reprehensible octogenarian war criminal Kissinger was dispatched on orders of the elite, not Obama.

Kissinger met with Putin at the Russian Prime Minister’s country house outside of Moscow.

And here’s one more to keep an ILLUMINATED eye on. Are THEY getting ready to “return” to Spaceship Earth?

Greece: Amazing UFO incident involving Air Force and airline
(allnewsweb.com, 2/7/09)

Oh the “New” Age of Aquarius joy....
