

This week's topics again:

1. WATCH OUT for this guy

2. THEM

1. WATCH OUT for this guy

Barak Obama wants to be everybody's friend. From the Muslim extremists at Gitmo to the homeless mother he kissed on national television (who, by the way, apparently has owned three properties since 2005 according to a report this week on worldnetdaily.com). He calls himself a "Christian" yet is the most rabidly pro-abortion politician ever. He wants to hold Wall Street CEO's accountable yet his own gang banker criminals like "Federal" "Reserve" Bilderberg gang banker Timothy Geithner get a free pass. He pals around with "advisor" and mega-capitalist David Rockefeller lackey Zbigniew Brzezinski yet is on the side of the way left eco wacko global warming (climate change?) kooks. Now he looks to lambaste "the rich" CEOs and those making $250,000 yet somehow billionaire/moveon.org founder George Soros is infatuated with "The Messiah". This self professed "citizen of the world" who wants to bring America into "the new age" and bring us all together still finds it okay to hang out at Reverend Jermiah "god damn America" Wright's "Christian" Church and practice "liberation theology". Yet he supports to the utmost a practice, abortion, whose historical intent has been the elimination of black "human weeds" and "misfits" as per Adolf Hitler hero lovely Margret Sanger. He promised "more transparency" in government yet "our" Congressional "useless officials" were not given ANY opportunity to read the so-called "stimulus" package. And we still don't know where this guy was born....

Why does this guy remind me of the nefarious shop owner in Stephen King's "Needful Things"? (see Book and Movie reviews page).

My Muslim President Obama: Why members of the Islamic faith see him as one the flock (forbes.com 2/25/09)

Of the few Muslims I polled who said that Obama is not Muslim, even they conceded that he had ties to Islam. These realists said that, although not an avowed and practicing Muslim, Obama's exposure to Islam at a young age (both through his father and his stint in Indonesia) has given him a Muslim sensibility. In my book, that makes you a Muslim-- maybe not a card-carrying one, but part of the flock for sure. One realist Muslim ventured that Obama worships at a Unitarian Church because it represents the middle ground between Christianity and Islam, incorporating the religious beliefs of the two faiths Obama feels connected to. Unitarianism could be Obama's way of still being a Muslim. (And let's not forget that the church Obama worshiped at for so many years had a minister who reminds most Muslims of their own raving, excitable ministers. Even if Obama really is Christian, he picked the most Muslim-esque minister out of the bunch to guide him.)

Obama even told The New York Times he could recite the adhan, the Islamic call to prayer, which the vast majority of Muslims, I would guess, do not know well enough to recite.

Besides befriending anyone looking to undermine this formerly great nation built by the Founding Fathers including radical Islam, bomb throwing Bill Ayers, Communist Saul Alinsky, David Rockefeller, the eco wackos, et. al. what a shock another one of the guy's allies would be the treasonous COMMUNIST scumbags at the ACLU...

Physicians: Obama plan will 'shut down hospitals' : 'Radically pro-abortion agenda' would remove conscience protections (worldnetdaily.com 2/28/09)

Doctors are forecasting the closure of hospitals and clinics across America and a mass migration of physicians and their assistances to other careers should the Obama administration succeed in its attempt to overrule their rights of conscience.

"The Obama administration claims, without offering a shred of statistical evidence, that the regulation has 'created confusion' and will somehow hinder access to healthcare. What can be clearer than not using federal funds to force healthcare professionals to violate longstanding principles of medical ethics like the Hippocratic Oath, which guided medicine for over two millennia?

"Planned Parenthood, the ACLU and their pro-abortion allies are seeking to punish pro-life medical professionals for their beliefs," Mattox said. "Far from arguing for 'choice,' these lawsuits seek to compel health care workers to perform abortions or face dire consequences."

Obama, while a state lawmaker in Illinois, objected to requiring doctors to provide medical care for infants who survive abortions and advocated virtually unlimited abortion on demand.

During his presidential campaign he said he would not want one of his daughters "punished" with a baby.

House Republican Minority Leader John Boehner of Ohio said the Obama plan "will hurt faith-based health providers and hospitals throughout our nation who are committed to caring for Americans at this critical time. It will also inevitably result in more abortions being performed nationwide."

"It is beginning to look like the administration is intent on enacting [Freedom of Choice Act] incrementally ... through low-key legislative maneuvers and executive orders," Boehner said.

FOCA would overturn all abortion regulations nationwide.

There's an old saying that you judge people by the company they keep. Look at our (still eligibility challenged) "President": Communists Saul Alinsky and Frank Marshall Davis, Communist bomb the Pentagon and police stations William Ayers, “Reverend” Jeremiah Wright, taxes are for the little people “Federal” “Reserve” gang banker Timothy Geithner, Rockefeller lackey Zbigniew Brzezinski, the aforementioned “religion of peace” types, etc. etc. Just look at some of the names genocidal David Rockefeller, the genocidal “religion of peace”, the genocidal radical abortion movement. Hmm. I’m starting to detect a pattern here from “our” new self professed “Christian” Messiah. Now apparently another murderous blast from the past worse than useless thug joins the chorus of Obama’s genocidal supporters...

Carlos the Jackal to Obama:

Help me find terrorist pal

Letter: 'As your grandfather would have said, Mr. President, Allahu akbar – God is great!' (worldnetdaily.com 3/1/09)

Emboldened by President Barack Obama's announcement he will close the Guantanamo facility housing suspected terrorists, one of the most notorious leftist terrorists of the 1970s and 1980s has written the president, asking him for help in finding a "former comrade-in-arms" missing for 14 years, and closing his letter with "Allahu akbar! ... yours in revolution."

Ilich Ramirez Sanchez – aka Carlos the Jackal – penned his letter to Obama from the Paris prison where he is serving a life sentence for the murder of two French agents and an informer, and for a series of deadly bomb attacks in Paris and on French trains, the Glasgow Sunday Herald reported today

Here’s a partial resume for “President” O’s latest buddy:

In 1982, Breguet was arrested by Paris police, along with Carlos' wife, for transporting explosives and attempting to shoot a police officer. The gun misfired. The arrests and subsequent prosecution were met with a reign of terror orchestrated by the Venezuela-born Carlos, who was supported by the Soviet KGB and other Eastern European communist secret services.

Now Obama’s hawkish stance on Afghanistan make more sense when combined with the incessant rumors that our own military is training for homegrown martial law. By leaving Iraq so quickly along with freeing all kinds of terrorist scumbags from “the religion of peace” like USS Cole murder mastermind Al Nashiri he appeases his left wing and new Islamic terrorist friends. By getting us deeper into the quagmire in Afghanistan loyal, true blue American servicemen and women are left in a buzzsaw between more concentrated attacks (Iraq is now a ‘good’ base) and less firepower as their equipment budget is cut back to help solve the (banksta caused) “financial crisis”. Now of course recent reports indicate that our over-stretched military is providing an easy visa to illegal aliens umm “undocumented workers”. In the meantime our borders are left “illogically” wide open, still, in the midst of our “war on terror”. Now put this all together and what is seemingly irrational makes a whole lot of sense. Many loyal US military personnel would take their oaths seriously to God, Constitution and country and tell the Godless Communist Obama and friends to stick it before marching and firing on fellow US citizens. Of course “undocumented workers” serving essentially as modern day Hessian mercenaries would have no such qualms given the choice between following orders or getting sent back to a life of squalor and hunger. Keeping the real US military busy in the Afghan quagmire while signing up foreign nationals kills two birds with one stone, no pun intended:

Carlos' 2003 book, "Revolutionary Islam" called on "all revolutionaries, including those of the left, even atheists," to accept the leadership of Islamists such as Osama bin Laden in order to turn Iraq and Afghanistan into "graveyards of American imperialism."

"Only a coalition of Marxists and Islamists can destroy the United States," the communist revolutionary and convert to Islam wrote in his book

His Islamic worldview was reflected in the letter to Obama, where he referred to Breguet as a "martyr":

If Bruno truly is dead, we need his body back, so his relatives, friends and comrades, may mourn in neutral Switzerland, this hero of the Palestinian cause, and his eternal soul join our martyrs in heaven.

Carlos concluded by reminding the president of his own Muslim grandfather, Hussein Onyango Obama, who converted to Islam in the 1950s after having been imprisoned and tortured in Kenya by the British during the Mau Mau rebellion.

I pray God Almighty that one day the peoples of our continent, free at last, may shout with one voice: "God bless our America! And as your Luo grandfather would say: ALLAHU AKBAR!"

I remain, Mister President, yours in revolution, "Carlos".

Obama putting military in harm's way? (onenewsnow.com, 2/26/09)

A military advocacy organization is not happy with President Barack Obama's plans to drastically cut defense spending by $53 billion.

Military Families United (MFU) is a non-profit organization committed to supporting America's troops and their families. MFU executive director Brian Wise says the Obama administration has no qualms about providing $350 billion to bail out Wall Street or $17.4 billion to bail out General Motors and Chrysler, but cannot provide the necessary funding to protect American troops from improvised explosive devices (IEDs).

"The president is taking away from a $1.5 billion budget for detecting IEDs, $1 billion. Seventy-five percent of that budget will be removed," he points out. "If those programs aren't in place, more of our soldiers will be lost to terrorists trying to kill [them]."

Wise calls it irresponsible for Obama to pledge thousands more troops to Afghanistan without giving them what they need to engage the enemy.

"It doesn't make any sense sending 17,000 more troops into Afghanistan and then not giving them the resources that they need to adequately fight. Or going on the air and saying he doesn't know that that will make a difference in Afghanistan," he notes. "That doesn't seem like a very responsible position to us."

MFU is imploring President Obama to provide the vital funding that U.S. troops need and deserve.

Think the purposeful murder of loyal United States armed forces personnel is 'impossible' or 'irrational'. Put it all together LOGICALLY, i.e., without emotion or preconceptions of how "great" America is without God, the real One. John Witherspoon, Revolutionary War veteran and signer of the Declaration of Independence stated "an enemy of God is an enemy of this country". Without God, the real One, are we really better than the disaster French or Bolshevik or Fidel Castro "revolutions for the people"?

Are we?

Come to think of it now President O's "O" symbol maybe has more meaning. Speaking of Saul Alinsky he directly dedicates his book "Rules for Radicals" to "the very first radical...Lucifer". Of course Lucifer or excuse me "The Angel of Light" or god of this world believes that mankind can rule himself in some kind of great symbiotic love-fest or "New World Order" or "World Commonwealth" according to FDR spiritual "advisor" and Freemason historian Manly Hall. Of course one of the rallying cries of the "New" Agers AND the Freemason/Illuminati/Skull and Bones elite is the Dawning of the Age of Aquarius or the Age of Reason. Now of course "Dawn" implies a rising sun.

Now take another hard look at what we in the "imbecile majority" are supposed to believe is an "O":

Hmmm. Remember eco wacko/Mother Earth lover Al Gore? He refused to take a pledge calling "global warming" a "spiritual issue" (see BEWARE THE ENVIRONMENTAL MOVEMENT, BEWARE THE ENVIRONMENTAL MOVEMENT on the bottom of the new age page) and came out to the song "Age of Aquarius" last August at the Democratic National Convention. Does this sound like "conspiracy theory"? Look at the front cover of my book and the top of the home page of this very web site. "They" hide things in plain view like that funny eye on the back of "your" "Federal" "Reserve" Notes or stick cap less pyramids on top of churches in the middle of Manhattan.

Uh oh.

WATCH OUT FOR THIS GUY.

2. THEM

For an approach investigating THEM from the viewpoint of logic and the Scientific Method see the Kosmos link on the relevant links page to Mystery, Babylon, USA. At this point let's continue from last week's discussion of THEM.

Scientists admit that if another life form is discovered here or "out there" outside the 'normal' realm of known biology and other sciences it would be earth shattering indeed.

ASU cosmologist explores notion of 'alien' life on Earth (Arizona State University, asunews.asu.edu, 2/19/09)

Astrobiologists have often pondered "life as we do not know it" in the context of extraterrestrial life, says Paul Davies, an internationally acclaimed theoretical physicist and cosmologist at Arizona State University. "But," he asks, "has there been a blind spot to the possibility of 'alien' life on Earth?"

The concept of a shadow biosphere, according to Davies, "is still just a theory. If someone discovers shadow life or weird life it will be the biggest sensation in biology since Darwin. We are simply saying, 'Why not let's take a look for it?' It doesn't cost much (compared to looking for weird life on Mars, say), and, it might be right under our noses."

Among his books are: "How to Build a Time Machine," "The Origin of Life," "The Big Questions," "The Last Three Minutes," "The Mind of God," "The Cosmic Blueprint" and his most recent book "The Goldilocks Enigma: Why is the universe just right for life?" published in the United States under the title "Cosmic Jackpot."

Last cases the world over were getting in on the act, now Italy sticks its two cents in...

Italy: Air Force Head concedes UFOs possibly ET craft (allnewsweb.com, 2/25/09) Michael Cohen m.cohen@allnewsweb.com

Italians are increasingly asking the question as to what is going on in their skies. Last year more UFO sightings were recorded in Italy than any year prior and this is catching the attention of the media. The Vatican has recently warmed up to the idea of life on other planets which begs the question as to whether Rome knows more about the topic than they are giving away.

Now an Air Force chief is conceding that aliens might be behind UFO incidents. In the last few weeks a number of high profile media outlets ran stories on UFOs. '055

News 'noted that the Italian Air Force has recorded 38 sightings of UFOs since 2001. In 2008 alone three sightings of interest were seen by the Air Force or picked up on their radars.

Many Ufologists are now counting down the years, months or days until governments of the world come clean and tell their countrymen what they know about UFOs.

Back to “The Late Great USA”...

UFOs ‘buzz’ two U.S. military bases (examiner.com, 2/24/09)

Witnesses are reporting UFO activity near U.S. military bases in Arizona and Texas this week. The Texas incident lit up both the sky and the ground as a glowing light moved toward the ground. Fighter jets were reported to have chased “two intense red lights” in Arizona.

Again look in the “related links” for Kosmos for a logical and Scientific Method discussion of whether “THEY” actually “exist”...
