1. Watchmen?

As a "conspiracy theorist" I can tell you that the movie "Watchmen" is rife with "New" Age symbolism that ties in with the concept of ILLUMINATION and the "Cloak of the Illuminati" thoroughly documented in "The THEorY of LIVEvolution". It is becoming more and more apparent that "They" have always known about "THEM". This ranges from Ancient Sumeria and Babylon to the plays of William Shakespeare who acted as a front for Illuminist Francis Bacon to the pseudo history-legends of King Arthur's Round Table that were based on history in post Roman England and filtered into modern movies like Star Wars and Lord of the Rings. In this instance this comic strip has been around for several decades. One subtle example of "New" Age pagan garbage are the female and time travel characters that appear to be modern day equivalents of mistress (i.e. whore) goddess Isis and underworld (i.e. death) god Osiris. Together these lovelies were the two main deities of Ancient Egyptian theocracy, the "Great" Society of Enlightened Communism as documented in "The THEorY of LIVEvolution". The more blatant examples of "New" Age concepts include the Egyptian "stairway to heaven" that appears at the end. The former super hero and now president of something called Pyramid International makes the final decision for the deaths of millions including New York City to save the rest of humanity. The most powerful of the "super-hero" group is dressed in a blue protective suit and is able to move through time as well as outer space. This concept of a similar protective coat was covered in "The THEorY of LIVEvolution" as discussed by "New" Age author William Henry in his book "Cloak of the Illuminati". Also, Mr. blue suit has on his forehead a prominent circle with a dot centered in it. This is a direct symbol of Illumination and directly related to the ILLUMINATED all seeing eye on the back of "our" "Federal" "Reserve" Notes. Speaking of all seeing eyes recall the company that is controlling events including some of the Watchmen themselves is called "Pyramid". Now take a look at the top of the home page at two prominent pyramids right here in the "The Late Great USA" (see the top of the home page). Also, the name "Rockefeller" appears on the name of the Army's Research Center in the beginning of the movie and "Moloch" is a mysterious man who knows what's going on with the super heroes and why they're being eliminated one by one. "Moloch" also happens to be the name of the burning owl worshipped by those who attend the annual Bohemian Grove meeting (that is linked on the home page). A veritable who's who of "conservative" global elites attends this thing including one David Rockefeller. My friends this isn't "conspiracy theory" or the movies; this one actually happens.

Reality itself is being turned upside down as the movies are becoming inseparable from reality. Are all of these things coincidences or are “They” conditioning the “imbecile majority” about “THEM”?

Of course at the end a few hundred million humans are allowed die in a nuclear exchange that the “Watchmen” could have prevented. But of course the poor deep fried slobs had to be sacrificed according to these “super heroes” so that the remainder of humanity can live in a world of peace, love, butterflies and kisses (and of course less people to share earth’s limited resources with) which lines up perfectly with the next topic...

2. BEWARE THE ENVIRONMENTAL MOVEMENT, BEWARE THE ENVIRONMENTAL MOVEMENT

There is a book entitled “AIDS: The Crime Beyond Belief” by authors William and Donald Scott. When I was a college student I authored a report on AIDS and came to the same general conclusions as these authors. I didn’t realize it then but it’s perfectly logical to me now that the Rockefeller family fingerprints are all over the place. For example:

A study of the evidence available but very hard to access in US government documents, peer reviewed medical and scientific articles, and historical records demonstrates that the compromise of the human immune system in the 1970s had its origins in scientific research rooted initially in the eugenics philosophy of a few wealthy American and British families given a critical boost in 1952 when the election of Dwight D. Eisenhower brought elements of these factions into powerful positions within the new administration. These factions essentially co-opted population control as an official challenge in America. (1)

And who might these powerful families be? Well just take a wild guess:

To most people’s surprise Nelson Rockefeller chose the job of Undersecretary of Health Education and Welfare (HEW). At last one of the scions of one of the world’s most ardent eugenics driven families had a toe-hold in government. And when:

“...he became an administrator in charge of the new agency’s $2 billion budget and 35,000 member staff; he immediately began setting up a war room...He seemed to work through advisors that were hazy figures on the periphery of the internal administration. They were people who apparently were tied in with the numerous Rockefeller outside interests.” (Special Virus Cancer Program, Progress Report #9)

And Nelson Rockefeller’s major outside interest was eugenics, and to advance this passion his new assignment would allow him to co-op the public health agencies into the biowar weapons research of the military.

After these agencies of health and defence had been melded and the Department of Health was effectively a Department of Death...Effectively Rockefeller was in command of the Central Intelligence Agency, and was ready to declare a covert war against a major enemy: humanity. (2)

The authors also make a direct connection between the World Health Organization (WHO), the Rockefeller family and “the carefully planned avian flu pandemic.”

In the “The THEorY of LIVEvolution” and on this site (see the new age page) it has been thoroughly discussed that the REAL environmental movement is nothing more than modern day “New” Age paganism whose true goal is population control. And who are the main purveyors of the low level eco lunatics? They would include UN-dead connected Canadian oil billionaire Maurice Strong and American oil multi-billionaire David Rockefeller. Recall that Rockefeller interests founded the UN-dead.

Strange that two of the richest men in the world with seemingly the most to lose from the eco wackos would be so interested in their perpetration, no?

Getting back to AIDS my research was initiated by a video tape of one Doctor Robert Strecker who staked the claim that AIDS was indeed of man made origin. The tape was admittedly of low quality and never one to take anybody’s word for it I did my own research. I read and documented multiple articles first hand from science magazines including “Nature” and “Science” among others and came to the same basic findings as Mr. Strecker:

1. There has never been a “green monkey” from Africa that was found to have anything similar to the HIV virus, the pre-cursor to the AIDS virus. Yet this mysterious origin was being trumped out by the mainstream press.
2. There were six distinct versions of the original AIDS viral strains that infected humans and all were related to sheep visna and bovine leukemia viruses. Although it happens, viruses don’t usually jump species very often and especially so suddenly. Now we’re supposed to believe that six accomplished this feat relatively simultaneously.
3. There were some vague references to an origin around the fifties. However, AIDS more or less exploded onto the scene around 1981. In Africa it was a heterosexual disease; in America a “homosexual” disease.
4. It showed up all over Africa and a few specific North American cities including New York and Los Angeles. One “conspiracy theorist” doctor even quipped that the mysterious green monkey must have been a jet pilot based on the strange initial epidemiology of the disease.
5. A Defense Department memo in the early seventies specifically requested an AIDS like disease that would specifically perform the way AIDS did: attack the immune systems of its human hosts. (Department of Defense Appropriations for 1970 Hearings Before a Subcommittee of the Committee on Appropriations, House of Representatives, Ninety First Congress, First Session, Tuesday July 1, 1969).

6. The London Times ran a front page story in the late 1980s detailing that the pattern of AIDS in Africa followed exactly the pattern of a World Health Organization small-pox vaccine distribution on that continent.
7. AIDS is a retrovirus; this type of disease had never previously infected humans. Essentially it starts out as ‘corrupt’ RNA that specifically attaches itself to a host cell DNA. It multiplies when the now corrupted DNA naturally splits to create new cells as happens in the human body constantly. This is biologically backwards; DNA is supposed to produce RNA but in this case genetic transcription is reversed and the RNA is producing essentially a ‘rebel’ DNA.

This past week in the news these two stories appeared:

Scientists make HIV strain that can infect monkeys (Reuters.com, 3/3/09)

WASHINGTON (Reuters) – Scientists have created a strain of the human AIDS virus able to infect and multiply in monkeys in a step toward testing future vaccines in monkeys before trying them in people, according to a new study.

This strain of HIV, the human immunodeficiency virus, was developed by altering a single gene in the human version to allow to infect a type of monkey called a pig tailed macaque...

There is a “cousin” virus to HIV called SIV, or simian immunodeficiency virus, that causes a disease similar to AIDS in certain type of monkeys.

But this monkey AIDS virus is not identical to the one that infects people...

Now based on the aforementioned seven points above it doesn’t take a career microbiologist (which I certainly do not claim to be) to ask ‘silly’ questions. For starters, why the need to create an HIV strains that can infect monkeys when it supposedly came from the African green monkey to begin with? Why not simply hunt down this mysterious monkey? Alternatively, surely if it was a green monkey as everyone was saying in the eighties than one must be in captivity or its tissues stored for uses such as this somewhere from twenty or thirty years ago that proves this supposition, right?

Now of course you probably didn’t hear about this next one in the mainstream shameful news. I know you didn’t; a simple search on “conservative” FOX sNEWS and “liberal” CNN turned up exactly 0 stories when prompted with “Baxter flu vaccine”. At least “liberal” CNN to its credit listed the link back to where this “conspiracy theorist” found it, infowars.com. Now keep in mind the aforementioned London Times story concerning the smallpox vaccine from the late eighties and the aforementioned link to the avian flu:

‘Accidental’ Contamination of Vaccine With Live Avian Flu Virus Virtually Impossible (infowars.com, 3/5/09)

Czech newspapers are questioning if the shocking discovery of vaccines contaminated with the deadly avian flu virus which were distributed to 18 countries by the American company Baxter were part of a conspiracy to provoke a pandemic.

The claim holds weight because, according to the very laboratory protocols that are routine for vaccine makers, mixing a live virus biological weapon with vaccine material by accident is virtually impossible.

Initially, Baxter attempted to stonewall questions by invoking “trade secrets” and refused to reveal how the vaccines were contaminated with H5N1. After increased pressure they then claimed that pure H5N1 batches were sent by accident. This was seemingly an attempt to quickly change the story and hide the fact that the accidental contamination of a vaccine with a deadly biological agent like avian flu is virtually impossible and the only way it could have happened was by wilful gross criminal negligence.

According to a compiled translation from Czech newspaper stories, the media over there is asking tough questions about whether the contamination was part of a deliberate attempt to start a pandemic.

“Was this just a criminal negligence or it was an attempt to provoke pandemia using vaccination against flu to spread the disease - as happened with the anti-B hepatitis vaccination with vaccines containing the HIV virus in US? - and then cash for the vaccines against H5N1 which Baxter develops? How could on Earth a virus as H5N1 come to the ordinary flu vaccines? Don’t they follow even basic precautions in the american pharma companies?” states the translation.

Surely scientists wouldn’t go along with such a scheme, would they? As thoroughly documented in my book and on this web site (see new age page) the real environmental movement is about population control and is centered around the Rockefeller founded UN-Dead, home of the World ahem Health Organization. But just in case you were wondering here are two specific examples of scientists who find it okay to limit population to save our beloved Earth Mother.

Well-known scientist and oceanographer Jacques Cousteau had this to say to UNESCO (United Nations Environment, Scientific and Cultural Organization) Magazine:

What should we do to eliminate suffering and disease? It’s a wonderful idea but perhaps not altogether a beneficial one in the long run. If we try to implement it we may jeopardize the future of our species.

It’s terrible to have to say this. World population must be stabilized and to do that we must eliminate 350,000 people per day. This is so horrible to contemplate that we shouldn’t even say it. But the general situation in which we are involved is lamentable. (3)

In “The THEorY of LIVEvolution” I documented a University of California physics major turned “New” Age loon who also viewed the aforementioned Dr. Strecker’s work. In the book “The Ancient Secret of the Flower of Life” author Drunvalo Melchizedak concluded that since world population was too excessive AIDS was a necessary evil to thwart population growth and protect our beloved Earth Mother. Of course this same author claimed to be writing under the inspiration of Thoth, the Ancient Egyptian god of wisdom. Now stick with me here, the flower, especially the Rose, is an occult symbol for silence and enlightenment or ILLUMINATION. Put these together and what do you have? The “Great” Mystery that man can become God, the real One, absent a few hundred million slobs in the “imbecile majority”. And who’s directly related to the rose? Right, my candidate for Satan, the mysterious Christian Rozenkruz who lately has manifested as RC Christian of Georgia Guidestones fame (see link 322, the Georgia Guidestones and the eco wackos on the bottom of the New Age page).

And one more fact, “Thoth” is one the same as the Greek god Hermes as in the Hermetic Philosophy and the theme of the occult minded Order of the Golden Dawn that in turn regards Christian Rozenkruz as its “father”...

Think this all is impossible or somebody would say something? I invite you to read up on the real “Federal” “Reserve” system documented in “The THEorY of LIVEvolution”. When was the last time any one of the “experts” on CircusNBC or Soros or Buffett themselves told you that paying off the national debt is fiscally impossible without imploding the national economy? Those that spoke up against this blatant scam including presidents often encountered stiff resistance in more ways than one and/or were victims of the gang banker controlled media/academic destruction machine of “Progressives” and other brainwashed stooges of the Ivy League/University of Chicago/et. al elite. The heroic Senator Joe McCarthy heads the list here.

Also, the Government experimented with syphilis strains in blacks in Alabama around 70 years ago. Several hundred died directly as a result. Still think this isn’t possible? We now have sitting president who voted AGAINST something called the “Born Alive Infant Abortion Protection Act”. And remember abortion’s (the original American eugenics modus operandi) intent has always focused on poor inner city blacks. So yes our first “black” President is genocidal against what he claims to be and supports a movement (American eugenics) that served as an inspiration to one Adolf Hitler.

Think this isn’t possible? Look no further than 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue.

3. THEY LIVE

In the movie “They Live” televisions were one of the main conduits of subliminal messages of sedation from THEM to humanity. Of course in the movie our sell out leaders or “They” who are looking out for our interests (wink, wink) have essentially sold out to THEM by controlling the economy and the major television networks. Hmm...

FOX Admits to Planting Political Brainwashing In Popular TV Shows (infowars.com, 3/6/09)

Rupert Murdoch's Twentieth Century Fox corporation has admitted to planting political brainwashing within its globally popular TV shows and indeed boasts that it is proud of the fact.

A corporate video currently being showcased on another part of Murdoch's media empire, MySpace.com, shows Fox executives and stars of its universally recognized shows bragging about how they use the platform of hit shows that are broadcast globally to implant messages about the supposed threat of global warming.

This is not the first time Fox have been enthusiastic in propagandizing for the establishment. In 2003, Rupert Murdoch himself admitted that the corporation had "tried" to help the Bush administration sell the war in Iraq.

The text accompanying the video states, "In 2006, News Corp. embarked upon a company wide initiative to reduce the size of its carbon footprint."

Now "conservative" FOX sNEWS under the leadership of Bilderberg (see Bilderberg link on related links page to Mystery, Babylon USA) Rupert Murdoch popped up again:

Global Television For Our Global Leader (infowars.com, 3/3/09)

Elite members of the World Economic Forum (WEF) meeting in Davos, Switzerland, at the end of January were considering a proposal for a new global television network to usher in a state of "global governance." It sounds authoritarian, even totalitarian, to some.

This outlandish and frightening proposal doesn't come from a fringe organization. The WEF is an exclusive club of very rich and powerful people from around the world. It describes itself as "an independent international organization committed to improving the state of the world by engaging leaders in partnerships to shape global, regional and industry agendas."

This year's conference featured speeches by U.N. Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon and Chinese Premier Wen Jiabao. The event's corporate sponsors, which pay about half a million dollars each to participate, include several failing institutions that have received tens of billions of dollars from U.S. taxpayers. They include Bank of America, Citi, Goldman Sachs, JPMorgan Chase & Co., and Morgan Stanley. These entities are termed "Strategic Partners" of the World Economic Forum.

News Corporation, the parent of Fox News, was another "strategic partner" of the event.

4. The “Great” Society

This is the sub-title of “The THEorY of LIVEvolution”. The so-called “Great” Society was started by globalist lackey and former “liberal” “President” Lyndon Johnson to “help” the downtrodden, mostly the American black. This “conspiracy theorist” made the case that the “Great” Society is nothing more than a test case to see how our illegal Federal Government can enslave us all without firing a shot and a preview of the Communist, one world utopia envisioned in Orwell’s “1984”. Apparently “Their” experiment worked and now globalist lackey and Rockefeller puppy dog Barak Obama is playing catch up with the rest of “The Late Great USA”:

We’re all inner-city blacks now Star Parker: New leaders destroying nation like they did African-American community (worldnetdaily.com 3/7/09)

Blacks are not given enough credit for being trendsetters in America.

Blacks started playing the blues, jazz, and R&B, then the rest of America started playing them.

Blacks discovered the politics of victimhood, then the rest of America started catching on.

Black women got into having babies without marriage. Then white women started getting into it (the incidence of white out-of-wedlock births today – almost 30 percent – is higher than the black rate in the 1960s).

Blacks bought into dependency and the welfare state. Now the rest of America has bought in.

Blacks for years elected politicians championing public policy that destroyed their own communities. Now the rest of America has installed a new political leadership with the perfect formula – run roughshod over private ownership, disdain traditional values, substitute political power for personal responsibility – for destroying our country.

Anyone who is curious where the current left wing takeover of our economy will lead, with government soon taking 40 cents out of every dollar we produce, should tour through any of America's inner cities.

If we have any luck, some of the better instincts of blacks today will also set trends. Blacks attend church more than any other group in the country. And most blacks reject the debasement of the definition of marriage.

Put this all together and what do we have? I don’t know “None Dare Call It Conspiracy” according to author and “conspiracy theorist” Gary Allen.

Good night, "Late Great USA".
