

Just in case you still think this all some kind of “conspiracy theory” let’s go straight to the horse’s mouth, or almost anyway. That would be David Rockefeller puppy dog/Tri-lateral Commission (another harmless group according to the fake Hegelian ‘conservative’ right like Rush Limbaugh and the other Republican shills) co-founder one Zbigniew Brzezinski. Our current “Messiah” came under the tutelage of Mr. B at the nexus of the “Progressive” lap dog gang banker boot lickers of the fake Hegelian liberal left and main source of Godless re-education in the “Late Great USA” or Columbia University for short. Mr. B is one of those ‘politburo’ Communists; he believes his Marxist theories apply to the “imbecile majority” and not say his boss, mega capitalist David Rockefeller. In that sense, he is even worse than our disgraceful Congress that has deemed “Progressive” FDR’s Socialist Security and Government mandated ‘free’ health care for the little people and the rest of the “imbecile majority”.

Before we get to the book let’s make a couple of quick points. The title page to the book describes him as “director of the Research Institute on Communist Affairs and Professor of Government at Columbia University”. Yeah, we want this guy teaching our “Progressive” stooge ‘liberals’, so-called intellectual elite and top “experts” on ‘Communism’ (more accurately the control of the “imbecile majority” by Central Government). Of course one of his famous lobotomy victims umm students was one Barak Obama. In the book “Obama: The Post-Modern Coup” author, Webster Griffin Tarpley, lambastes Mr. B for his obvious control of the puppet on a string teleprompter reader Obama. However, his solution of Hillary Clinton as the real candidate that should have won the so called Presidency is almost funny. Replacing Bilderberg minion/Born Alive Infant Abortion Protection Act with Bilderberg minion/Margret Sanger award winning Queen Hillary is as ‘funny’ as replacing Al Capone with John Gotti as a solution to the Mafia.

The title of the book is “Between Two Ages”. Now knowing that this guy is in with David Rockefeller and the rest of the Bohemian Grove/devil worshipping/Illuminist crowd should make one’s ears perk right up (see Bohemian Grove link on the Mystery, Babylon, USA page). So the two ages would have to be the one we are living in now and the ‘Paradise Earth’ or “Age of Aquarius” that every “New” Age loon AND elitist, gang banker elite is after. Now do the ‘insults’ listed on the home page make more sense? Now does my ‘Circle of Life’ (see new age page) and its Alamo like concept make much more sense?

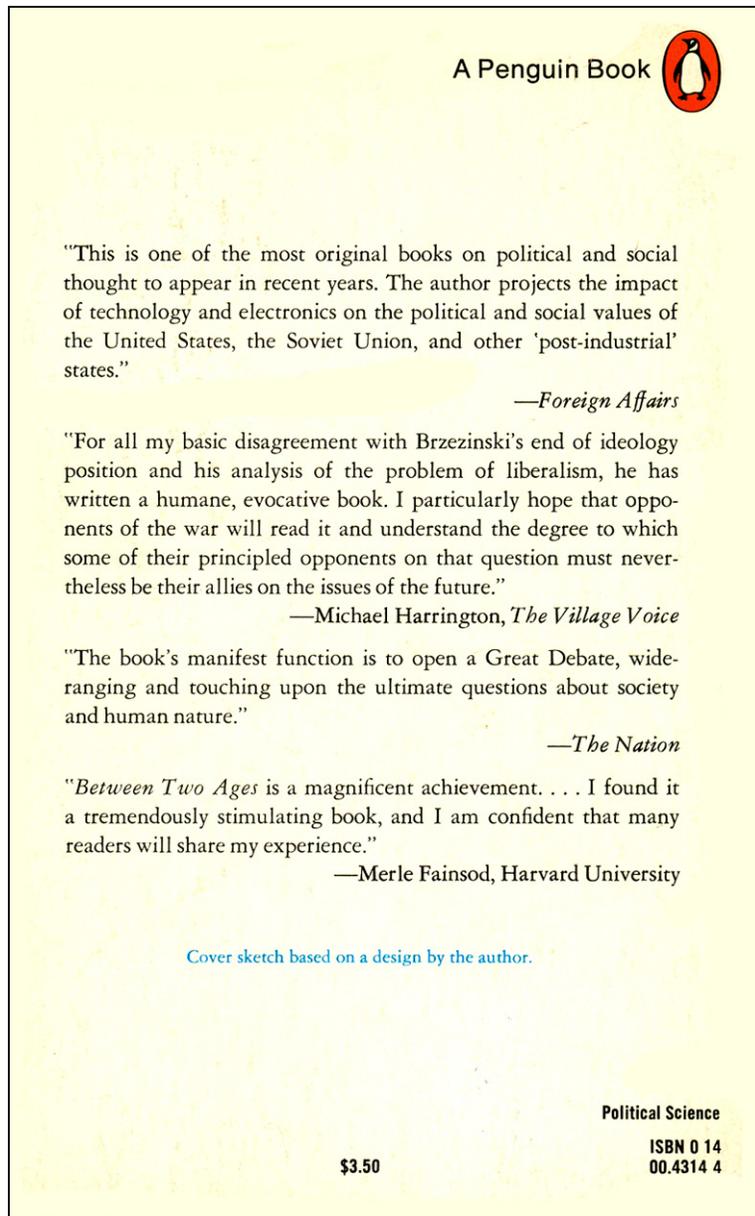

Founding Father great William Penn quipped “Men will either be ruled by God or by tyrants”. We already know what the MTV left wing crackpots would say about so dramatic a statement. But was he a right ring nut as many so-called “conservative pundits” like the stuffed shirt zombies on FOX sNEWS would say? Very simply this is why Jesus Christ, the real One, said “he that is not with me is against me”: The Founding Fathers understood that rights come from God and not men and they were willing to die for this principle. Do you think Patrick Henry was kidding around when he stated:

What is that Gentlemen wish? What would they have? Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains of slavery? Forbid it, Almighty

God! I know not course what others may take, but as for me GIVE ME LIBERTY OR GIVE ME DEATH.

Therefore, when the so-called ‘conservatives’ on “The No Spin Zone” cast off yours truly as the nuts they are doing nothing more than fulfilling the fake right of our Illuminati criminal elite who are out to make ALL slaves in their upcoming worldwide gulag. (Please read “To arms, To Arms” atop the home page for an extension of this).

Now take a look at the back cover of “Between Two Ages”:

Here we have the neo-cons or ‘conservatives’ of the Council on Foreign Relations magazine Foreign Affairs (the CFR is all “conspiracy theory” according to Republican skill Rush Limbaugh) and the so called liberals consisting of the left wing loons at The Village Voice, socialist crackpots at The Nation with a dash of an “expert” from gang banker elite yet “Progressive” Harvard excuse me HAAAARverd University. In a nut shell, no pun intended, both ‘right’ and ‘left’ kiss the  of Mr. B and his mega rich Capitalist to the maximus master genocidal David Rockefeller. This richly, no pun intended, ironic situation is similar to the left wing nut jobs at moveon.org taking orders from uber rich capitalist Progressive for the restive of us George Soros.

But let’s have a look at some of what Mr. B has to say (remember this guy has been O’s “advisor” for almost 30 years):

A new pattern of international politics is emerging. The world is ceasing to be an arena in which relatively self-contained “sovereign,” and homogeneous nations interact, collaborate, clash, or make war.

Transnational ties are gaining in importance, while the claims of nationalism, though still intense, are nonetheless becoming diluted...The consequence is a new era. (1)

Okay so we have a “new era” emerging but his title is “Between Two Ages”. Hmmm this could only mean the world follows the lead of our Divinely inspired Founding documents or we meld into some kind of world wide love fest of John Lennon “Dreamer” proportions save the “religion of peace” nut-jobs, Hugo Chavez, Vladimir Putin and Mother Russia, the Communist Chinese umm...

Remember we ultimately have two choices: William Penn God or tyrants, Jesus with or against me, the God of the Bible and the Constitution or the god of this world and Communism...

Nationalism did not seek to direct the individual toward the infinite, but to activate the impersonal masses for the sake of immediately proximate goals...The state thus became the institutional form of the new dominant belief, with a monopolistic claim on the active dedication to it of man, now designated, first and above all, as the citizen.

The designation of “man the citizen” symbolically marks another milestone in the evolution of man as a social being. Equality before God was now matched by equality before the law; spiritual egalitarianism was now reinforced by legal egalitarianism. It is of note that legal equality was asserted both by the American Revolution, which supplemented its stress on equality before the law with strong attachment to religious values – indeed, it derived the former from the latter – and the French Revolution, which constructed its pantheon of human equality by explicitly rejecting the religious tradition. In both cases the legal equality of the citizen was postulated as a universal principle...(2)

He’s basically saying that the American Revolution stressed the individual and that religion (ie, Biblical Christianity) established individual rights. In the French Revolution humanism ruled the day for individual rights. David Rockefeller’s prodigy forgets one minor detail: the French Revolution was an unmitigated disaster. The aristocracy of Louis XVI was feudal in nature but things in France weren't nearly bad enough to justify the boondoggle of bloodshed that was to become the French Revolution. After 'the people' rose up - by most accounts Paris was business as usual while 'the people' stormed the Bastille which sounds strikingly similar to left wing zombie nut jobs and so-called anarchists rioting in the streets aimlessly vis a vis Obama mentor Saul Alinsky's 'Rules for Radicals' (see link on Mystery, Babylon USA) - the so-called Revolution collapsed on itself. Innocent men, women and children came under the beheading tool of the so-called revolutionaries, the guillotine. Things got so bad the inventor of the guillotine itself, Revolutionary leader Robespierre became a headless victim of his invention. The overall result was that although improvement was eventually made on some fronts as the country came under the military dictatorship of Napoleon Bonaparte. He instituted some reforms out of his desire to keep the "imbecile majority" happy not so much to avoid another round of barbarism as to maintain his dictatorship. Interestingly two results of the French Revolution were a 'free' public school system and its own "Federal" "Reserve" central bank, the Bank of France that still operates today. Another result was "separation of church and state" which meant basically that the dictatorial influence of the sham Catholic Church was replaced with the humanistic keep 'em happy but not too happy Napoleonic approach.

The American Revolution, on the other hand, stressed the exact opposite of the French: God given rights trumped all and the state was subservient to the people. The Federal (central) Government was kept minimally alive and state and local governments ruled the day. The very religious New England Primer and Bible ruled the day in the public school system. True there was bloodshed but the British enemy was clearly warned and enemy soldiers were killed; not innocent women and children.

Underneath the surface of the French Revolution the physical RC Christian, a French Freemason who was known as a "wonderman" throughout Europe and shared the Cabala with international gang banker Amsel Mayer Rothschild, was at the forefront of the so-called French revolutionaries with his "Enlightenment" ideals. This becomes particularly interesting when one realizes that the Cabala is one and the same with "The Tree of Knowledge". And RC Christian (see link) is one mysterious character indeed: from Egyptian god Thoth to King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table to the Anti-10 Commandments of the Georgia Guidestones to Summit University, Peoples Republic of California today 2009. So as not to get too off subject suffice it to say that the Freemasons and new sub group of "Illuminated" elites or ILLUMINATI were the real engine driving the French Revolution. And by the end of the nineteenth century the English Round Table Groups would merge many tenets of the French Revolution with the "Great" Society of Plato under a new name, Communism. Of course one can chalk this up to "conspiracy theory" but one need look no further than the Masonic mantra "liberty, equality, fraternity" as one in the same with the mantra of the French Revolution.

So we're back to the original questions: what does mega-captialist David Rockefeller's lap dog Zbigniew Brzezinski mean by "Between Two Ages? And which system does this Trilateral Internationalist support (oops did I just give it away): the One world gang banker Communist slave gulag that is “Progressive” according to the left wing shills at Harvard excuse me HAAAARverd, Columbia and the rest of the Ivy League or the God based Constitution and the good ‘ol US of A?:

That is why Marxism represents a further vital and creative stage in the maturing of man’s universal vision. Marxism is simultaneously a victory of the external, active man over the inner, passive man and a victory of reason over belief...

What he does not say is that for many outside the immediate influence of the West and its Christian tradition it has been Marxism that has served to stir the mind and to mobilize human energies purposefully. (3)

By the way Karl Marx, whose lot in life was NOT that of a pauper was an avowed Satanist over and above any belief in “mobilizing human energies purposefully”. So one must ask, is this guy serious? What “human energies” were “mobilized purposefully” by the leading Marxists of the twentieth century? Josef Stalin’s thugs who killed or imprisoned 50 to 60 million common folks? Pol Pot who killed millions more? Fidel Castro and his sidekick Che (now the object of coolness of many in the mentally enslaved Brave New World American youth)? Do I need to say, again, how stupid “Marxism” (and in fact American “liberalism”/Progressivism) is at its core? It’s called mandatory compassion, just like the governmentspeak of Orwell’s 1984. Are the so called elites that listen and regurgitate this garbage that far gone that they don’t ask the simple question why would the world’s leading so called capitalists espouse a philosophy directly opposed to their way of life?

Does Mr. B. really believe this garbage? Or does he go home at night and laugh it up with Kissinger, Rockefeller and the rest of the gang banking elite? Laugh at the blatant idiocy he disseminates to the so-called intellectuals, elites and other Ivy League stooges before they embark on the Treasonous internal take over of “The Late Great USA”?

Not being part of the Harvard excuse me HAAARVerd/Columbia Teachers’ College brainwashed minions/future University professors allows one to see what Mr. B. is saying here (hint: think Freemason historian Manly Hall’s “imbecile majority”):

In the absence of social consensus, society’s emotional and rational needs may be fused – mass media make this easier to achieve – in the person of an individual who is seen as both preserving and making the necessary innovations in the social order. Given the choice between social and intellectual disorder – and by this is not meant anything that even approaches a revolutionary situation – and authoritarian personal leadership, it is very probable that even some present constitutional and liberal democratic societies would opt for the latter (4)

In other words, just feed the “imbecile majority”, the “profane”, the “mundane”, the “misfits, morons and imbeciles” bread and entertain them with circuses and voila instant Desperate Housewives dumbed down American gulag. The “bread and circuses” fed to the “imbecile majority” of the Roman Empire is the weapon of choice of Mr. B. and his Politburo Communist elite gang banker accomplices like Henry Kissinger, David Rockefeller, Harvard excuse me HAAAARverd ex-president Larry Summers, Timothy Geithner and the rest of the Bilderberg scum and the other Trilateral/CFR sell outs. Notice anything in common here? All are white, Godless ultra capitalist scum and “advisors” to our “first black president”.

Now of course the University of Chicago/Cal Berkely/Ivy League “Progressive” intellectual would cast me off as some “angry white male” who “clings to his guns and religion” and associated with some kind of Nazi Party wackos. As documented thoroughly on this web site and throughout “The THEorY of LIVEvolution” the Nazi system is directly related to Marxism excuse me “Progressivism”: the control of the many in the “imbecile majority” by the few. And as pointed out in various places including the top of the home page this whole struggle does now involve other dimensions where guns will mean little. Quite simply, we have the god of this world, Karl Marx’s Satan the same as David Rockefeller’s Molech or “The Angel of Light” on the “Great” Seal versus the God of Israel and His Son in human form Jesus Christ.

But just in case anybody wants to cast me off here is Zbigniew Brzezinski, lap dog to David Rockefeller, “advisor” to “the first black president” and teacher to hundreds of brainwashed “Progressive” minions in colleges everywhere in his own words in 1970 that could be a lead story, today, 2009:

Its appearance would therefore assist and perhaps even accelerate the further development of present world bodies – such as the World Bank – which are in any case defacto institutions of the developed world geared toward assisting the Third World. A greater sense of community within the developed world would help to strengthen these institutions by backing them with the support of world opinion; it might also eventually lead to the possibility of something along the lines of a global taxation system.

In a footnote Mr. B. sounds just like FDR’s mysterious mystical advisor Nicolas Roerich (see Rivers of Life link on the Mystery, Babylon USA page):

In my view, such a community would also provide a base for implementing more far-reaching and visionary proposals for global cooperation; for example, those contained in the stimulating “Bulleting of Peace Proposals” prepared by the International Peace Research Institute, Oslo, in the autumn of 1969. (5)

This treasonous sell-out sounds just like a nice little Harvard excuse me HAAARverd bootlicking “Progressive” stooge than a minion of mega-industrialist David Rockefeller:

The international equivalents of our domestic needs are similar: the gradual shaping of a community of the developed nations would be a realistic expression of our emerging global consciousness; concentration on disseminating scientific and technological knowledge would reflect a more functional approach to man’s problems, emphasizing ecology rather than ideology; both the foregoing would help to encourage the spread of a more personalized rational humanist world outlook that would gradually replace the institutionalized religious, ideological and intensely national perspectives that have dominated modern history. (6)

This last one is directly out of Djwhal Khul's (see Djwhal Khul link on Mystery, Babylon USA page and Section 3n of "The THEorY of LIVEvolution) playbook. We have the real THEorY of LIVEvolution with this "emerging global consciousness" bit and the eco wackos' real purpose of destroying capitalism and genocide by "emphasizing ecology rather than ideology". And of course the philosophy of John Dewey (Fabian socialist/humanist, Rockefeller family friend and the new father of American re-education) show up as well in the last part where we have a "rational humanist world outlook" to "replace institutionalized...national perspectives". What the hell, pun intended, do you think Mr. B.'s target is there? It could be the "religion of peace" countries but taken in context with the whole quote, it has to be "The Late Great USA".

Do you see how hard it is to separate this stuff? The Founding Fathers expected not demanding that the nation's leaders and in fact the nation be Christians. This wasn't a problem early in this country's history but in our anything goes society of today the Christianity of the Founding Fathers has been separated of church and state right out of the so-called 'mainstream' while true Christians are marginalized as kooks, zealots, 'conspiracy theorists', etc. This vaporization has largely been the result of 'The Order' of Skull and Bones and the rest of the CFR/Trilateral Commission/Bilderberg criminal parasite elite. (This control is thoroughly documented in Section 2 of "The THEorY of LIVEvolution" and on this web site. A good place to start would be the 1984 link on the New Age page.) Today's version of 'The Order' is led by Mr. B., Henry Kissinger and David Rockefeller. All of these people worship Satan as did the so-called father of Communism, Karl Marx. So what we have here is a religious war for... well "the ages".

Let's make a quick chain that summarizes this whole discussion in a nutshell, no pun intended: Garden of Eden ("Great" Society of "Legendary" Atlantis) > Illuminati/Skull and Bones (The Order) > Bohemian Grove (Satan worship) > German philosopher Hegel (fake conservatives and fake liberals both serving the State) > Societal wide enslavement of the many by the few or the "Great" Society. (All of these concepts can be researched in "The THEorY of LIVEvolution" and this web site.)

Which age will you choose; Mr. B's and Satan's Age of Aquarius/Paradise Earth open to only the ILLUMINATED or God's the real One's heaven open to EVERYBODY?
