

First we should make it known several accounts equate the Egyptian male god Osiris with both Odin of Northern European lore and Quetzalcoatl of Mayan fame. We've already discussed Osiris at length; this section will concentrate on the latter two. Even though these 'legends' are sourced in very distinct cultural and geographical locations we'll see the same names, concepts and places pop up along with a very tight relationship to our new friend, RC Christian.

Perhaps there's a good reason for that.

A. Odin

The Norse gods known as the Vanir had a mystical home known as Asgard. A rival group of gods known as the Aesir battled them for supremacy and eventually a truce was accomplished. This reeks of Greek mythology whereupon the original gods or Titans battled the 'new generation' gods of Mount Olympus led by Zeus. Here too a truce was made and the gods lived in relative harmony with their human subjects caught in the middle. Getting back, Odin was the by-product of this truce; the rival gods spit into a bowl or cauldron and out he came. This cauldron would eventually become the counterpart to the golden cup of Joseph of Arimethea in the "Christian" Grail legends. Odin, like Thoth/Hermes/Mercury (i.e., our very own RC Christian) was a traveling 'god' who had an insatiable thirst for knowledge and wisdom. And just like Perceval of Arthurian lore (who we tied directly to RC Christian in the Holy Grail link) Odin went on a dangerous quest to seek the 'exilir' of eternal life which he eventually obtained.

There are several more tie-ins between Norse 'legends' and RC Christian. First, to acquire knowledge and wisdom, Odin hung from a mystical tree known as the Ygdrassil Tree. This tree flowered in the presence of the Norse Holy Grail so we can see some similar symbolism to the rose flower representing the 'knowledge' or ILLUMINATION or 'enlightenment' of the Rosicrucians as explained previously. Even more interestingly, the Ygdrassil Tree is described as "...an ash that binds the cosmos together...". This is a similar situation to "The Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil" whereupon Adam and Eve tried to acquire their own "knowledge" of tying their limited reality with the gods of the "cosmos" as discussed in the Pharisees and Kabalah link. The Ygdrassil Tree takes on even more significance since its three roots lead to three sections of the Underworld and its gods including Niflheim, Jotunheim and Asgard. Of course we can very quickly see the word 'nephilim' from 'Niflheim'. Recall that the nephilim were the fallen angels or demons described in Genesis 6. Also, a southwestern section of England known as Glastonbury is the centre of Nordic/Celtic legends. Here is located a place called Chalice Hill that contained magical springs from the Underworld with all kinds of magical powers similar to the Fountain of Youth whereupon those who bathed in its waters would be 'blessed' with eternal youth. Also, it is an area rich in Apple orchards. And apples, it was claimed, grew in Asgard, home of the gods (and recall the home of Odin). Apples are associated with the "knowledge" of eternal life and sexuality; the type of thing that got Adam and Eve in to trouble with God, the real One.

Finally, the word apple is derived from Apollyon or Apollo. Recall from the new age page on this web site “The Christ-Apollo” that sits at the “sun-center” of the “New” Age. That photo, is a good summary of the “New” Agers: A god like figure associated with the sun or son of god the sun god Ra is in charge of the 12 cycles of the Zodiac. Of course one of the identities pinned on our new friend RC Christian was that of the son of the sun god Ra (see Thoth/Hermes/Mercury link) making him essentially one in the same with Apollo. And what does God, the real One have to say about Apollo? He doesn’t parse words in this account in Revelation:

And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months. 11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon. 12 One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter. (Verses 9:10-12)

This passage segues perfectly in to the real matter at hand: Odin (or Apollo the Destroyer) leading the “dead” in their final assault on the living that reads exactly like this account from Revelation. Also be aware Egyptian god of the dead Osiris was known as “Destroyer” as well.

Oh the “New” Age of Aquarius joy.

There are multiple links that tie in the Nordic “legends” with the Arthurian/Knights Templar “legends” discussed in the Holy Grail link. For example, one of the most prominent of these direct links is that of a boat that represents the vehicle in which human souls travel in as they navigate the “cosmic oceans” to be in eternity with “The One” who we can now surmise is represented by the various mystical/physical phases of RC Christian discussed on the other links here. Again, this very concept of another “Master” or “god of universal wisdom” is directly contrary to Jesus Christ, the real One, (i.e., “anti-Christ”) who said “I am the way, the truth, and the life; no one comes unto the Father but by me”. In the Nordic equivalents of the Holy Grail story one of the most prominent forms of the Grail was a large boat or ship symbolic of the same basic premise, a vehicle the dead traveled in as they navigated the “cosmic oceans” on the way to nirvana. And of course the tie in to our very own Freemason/Rosicrucian complex under the guise of RC Christian is the roof structures of the Templars’ Cathedrals the world over. The roof is in the form of a hull of a boat that sits atop a passageway called the ‘nave’ from which we can easily derive the word ‘navy’ (see Cathedrals link on Mystery, Babylon USA and/or Section 3r of “The THEorY of LIVEvolution”).

With this basic background let’s embark, no pun intended, on our journey to the world of the UN-dead and their impending return to “Mother Earth”. First let’s define “undead”. In the ultimate sourcebook of truth God, the real One, makes this unambiguous statement in the Book of Hebrews:

And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: 28 So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. (Verses 9:27-28)

What this is saying is that the dead don't come back; when "legends" talk of the living dead or gods with superhuman traits they're actually describing Satan or Lucifer (the ILLUMINATED Angel of Light) and his cohorts or "demons".

Throughout my book and this website I've traced just about everything in human "modern society" that's not out of the Word of God to the Ancient Egyptian/Babylonian civilizations. So what's the historical link from the "Ascended Masters" (who are nothing more than Biblical demons or "fallen angels) of those two early civilizations to Odin and his underworld friends? Let's take a brief tour back in history.

A major source of Northern European "legends" discussed here come out of the so called lost tribes of Israel, the tribe of Dan. In the centuries after Moses brought Israel to Canaan, they split up in to 2 kingdoms, Northern and Southern; so the "mythology" of the Egyptians and their god/man Thoth/Osiris – the god of the underworld and the dead - would have been fresh in their minds. The Northern consisted of 10 of the 12 original tribes (i.e., the 12 sons of Abraham's grandson Jacob). Amongst the Northern tribes was the Tribe of Dan. When the Assyrian Empire was at its peak around 1000 BC, it overtook most of the civilized world including Northern Israel. Some elements of Dan escaped to the west whereupon they traveled across Europe and up in to the northern points of the globe. This happened over the course of several centuries and evidence of this migration is indicated by the names of various places and geographic features such as the Danube River. One of the places some elements ended up was England. These migrants integrated with the locals and formed groups such as the Druids. The very powerful Roman Empire had all kinds of problems dealing with what was known as Britannia and its occult minded occupants such as the mysterious Druids. Subsequent to the fall of the Roman Empire around 400 AD, further intermingling occurred when other white Northern Europeans, some of whom were also descended from the Tribe of Dan, began overtaking Britannia and its 'Anglo' occupants. The 'Saxons', mostly from modern day Germany, combined with the 'Anglos' to form what we now know as 'Anglo-Saxons'. Also around this time invasions from the European mainland were commonplace from groups of Norsemen known as 'Vikings'; most were repelled. It was during this time (c. 500-1000 AD) that the King Arthur "legends" were supposed to have happened. The "legendary" King Arthur appears to be the combination of several real life Anglo-Saxon leaders who fought the Viking invaders. In 1066 Norseman William the Conqueror overtook England successfully further cementing the "legends" carried by the original Israeli Tribe of Dan with the Anglo-Saxons. And as discussed in The Holy Grail link, the Arthurian "Legend" of the Grail is essentially one in the same with the real life Knights Templar.

So we can see our friend RC Christian lurking around this discussion although we haven't named him...yet.

Another group of northern tribes of the Earth is the Inuits who are made up largely of what is commonly known as “Eskimos”. They occupy large portions of northern Greenland, Canada and Alaska. They regard the astrological spectacle known as “the Northern Lights” as some kind of dance of the spirits of the dead. This may sound like more ridiculous conclusions of a backwards people but look at the background. Hieroglyphs, or the Ancient forms that predate our lettered alphabets, the world over indicate flying saucers and other astral like beings. And I’ve made the case in multiple areas (relevant news stories page, Section 3d of “The THEorY of LIVEvolution” and the Kosmos link on Mystery, Babylon USA) that UFOs are one in the same with Biblical “fallen angels” or “demons”. So casting these peoples’ beliefs off may not be as easy as it seems. The beliefs of these people are summarized here:

...the Inuit people of Greenland have an intriguing myth about the Northern Lights or Aurora Borealis. It was believed that the spirits of the dead, playing a game with a walrus skull, created the flickering curtain of the colored lights. The dead want to join the living and anyone who sees the light should give a low whistle to acknowledge them. Here the animal skull becomes a bridge between the two worlds of the living and the dead just as the Christian Grail links the earthly realm with the divine and heaven. (1)

Recall also from the Holy Grail link that the head of Osiris or baphomet was considered another manifestation of the Holy Grail. Also, the Skull and Bones is another symbol related to the Holy Grail in addition to being the name of the American illumined or “enlightened ones” or ILLUMINATI. And Skull and Bones ties directly to RC Christian and the eco wackos (see 322, the Georgia Guidestones and the eco wackos link on the new age page).

In an aptly titled book “Battle Begins For Throne of This World: The Return of the Einherjar Warriors” author Sorcha Faal opens up with these very same Inuit people:

“The great peril of our existence lies in the fact that our diet consists entirely of souls”, say the Inuit people of the great Arctic regions of the World.

According to these Ancient people’s beliefs, all living things have souls, just like our human ones, and once we kill a life its spirit is then free to exact revenge upon us...

In our modern world today there are many who also live their live by this ancient Inuit saying, “We don’t believe. We fear.” (2)

Recall that these people are rooted in the EXACT “mythology” of our very own Illuminati criminal masters. So it’s odd that these people “fear” yet our ILLUMINATI criminal leaders welcome these dead souls or “Ascended Masters” as ushering in “The Age of Aquarius”. Ms. Faal makes similar statements against the so-called “Christianity” of places like the Catholic Church that I make in Section 1. of “The THEorY of LIVEvolution” and throughout this website. That is, the “Christianity” of the Catholic Church and its offshoots including the various Orthodox religions and even the Protestants are actually rooted in Ancient Egyptian and Babylonian paganism. The most graphic illustration of this simple fact is found in the many Cathedrals found throughout the world. However, Ms. Faal does present some startling insight that further illustrates the interrelationship of Ancient devil worship with many so-called “Christian” faiths:

The list of the appropriation by the Christian belief system of virtually all of its customs, practices and teachings is staggering, and in some cases almost beyond belief, for example; the steeple which adorns many of its churches has its origins of an ancient god named Baal whose believers built steeples for the purpose of sacrificing babies under as ordered by their ‘god’. (3)

(This concept was thoroughly discussed in The Holy Grail link here, Section 3r of “The THEorY of LIVEvolution” and the Cathedrals link on the Mysterby, Babylon USA page. The reader is referred to these places to avoid redundancy here.)

Recall that the name ‘Baal’ showed up as the ‘ba’ in the Jewish Pharisees and the Kabalah link as rooted in the very word signifying the universal numerical system of the “Kabalah”. Also, recall the concept of one’s “ka” and “ba” showed up in the Vampires link as well. But just to be sure who ‘Baal’ actually is here’s God, the real One registering his disgust with His chosen people Israel:

And they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed themselves unto them, and provoked the LORD to anger. 13 And they forsook the LORD, and served Baal and Ashtaroth. 14 And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies. (Judges 2:12-14)

This passage definitely points to Ancient Egypt as the source of Baal/Satan or “The Angel of Light” but the name “Ashtaroth” is intriguing as well. Knowing that prior to our written alphabets a given entity was pronounced differently one can possibly see the other two gods of the unholy trinity of Osiris/Isis/Thoth discussed in the Thoth/Hermes/Mercury link. That is “Thoth” and “Hathor”, a synonym for the female goddess Isis.

This next passage is actually an excellent summary of many concepts that are discussed throughout this website as well as an idea of how important Odin really is to Northern European “mythology”:

In the ancient mythologies Odin is credited with the creation of our Earth and is known as the greatest of all the gods. Though Odin is, seemingly, unknown to the Christian believers of today’s world he is, in fact, more celebrated by today’s Christians than Jesus Christ.

For as the Christian world has become more secularized, their most important celebration, Christmas (December 25th), and which declared by Pope Julius I in the 4th Century AD to be the 'official' birth date of Jesus Christ, is also the celebration of an old man with a floppy red hat, long white beard, who today is called Santa Claus or Saint Nick but whose real name is Odin.

The colors of the Christian Christmas, red and green, and which symbolize male and female, the singing of songs (caroling) the decoration of an evergreen tree, the giving of presents, all of these, and more, have nothing to do whatsoever with the worship of Jesus Christ, and everything to do with the worship of Odin in the belief that through these rituals Mother Earth would 'nudge' the Sun to return once again from its winter 'hiding place'. (4)

So this passage reveals some startling facts (and one common mistake). First, Odin "as the greatest of all the gods" makes him the Northern European equivalent of the Ancient Egyptian male god Osiris. In this link we've just discussed the migration of the Israeli tribe of Dan, a migration that would have included the "mythology" of Ancient Egypt. Also, recall in the earlier links here that Osiris is tied directly in with the Thoth/Hermes/Mercury gods of "mythology" or RC Christian for short.

Secondly, we see the paganism of Ancient Egypt facilitated by the Catholic Church corrupting the real story of Jesus Christ, the real One. The concept of Mother Earth and nature worship, the real goal of today's eco wackos as stated copiously throughout this website, is illustrated as well. But we can quickly see the fusion of multiple "mythologies" indicated here. The sun reaches its low point or resting point in the days prior to December 25th. From then on it begins its ascent to its highest point around June 21st, the Summer Equinox. Of course during this time we have the Spring Equinox around March 22nd, the time when the darkness of winter ends and the brightness of the sun god becomes more pronounced. These three months are known as winter when no crops grow and the mood is generally gloomy as the sun god starts its journey back to enlighten the earth. In addition to Norse "mythology" mentioned here, these concepts are illustrated by "The Mouthpiece of Freemasonry" Manly Hall who represents our "conservative" industrial ILLUMINATED criminal masters and many of the "liberal" eco wacko far left loons. So we can see, once again, this UN-holy marriage of the fake left/right paradigm with a heavy dosage of Roman Catholic paganism thrown in.

The one mistake Ms. Faal makes is she refers to the Roman Catholic Church as "Christians" when, as I've just shown, nothing can be further from the truth.

There's one more key tie between Norse "mythology" and our Freemason/Illuminati criminal masters and "THEIR" so called "mythology". That is the male/female duality, the ying yang principle or the dueling nature of man discussed in other links here. Here's Ms. Faal's take:

The cosmology of Norse mythology also involves a strong element of duality; for example the night and day have their own mythological counterparts...the sun Sol and its chasing wolf Skoll, the moon Mani and its chasing wolf Hati, and the total opposites of Niflheim and Muspell in the origin of the world. (5)

So we can see some obvious similarities to both Ancient Egypt/Babylon and the Old Testament. For the former we see equivalents to the sun god Ra, father to Thoth/Hermes/Mercury (RC Christian) and Isis, the moon goddess and sister/wife to Osiris. Also, we have “total opposites of Niflheim and Muspell”. We can readily see the word ‘nephilim’ or fallen angels (i.e., demons) from the former which means the opposite or “Muspell” who would have to represent those angels like Michael who never rebelled against God, the real One.

This common theme of duality is where things can get a little confusing. Since this important let’s have a quick review. The Bible specifically states that all mankind are sinners and imperfect as the Apostle Paul laments “for all have sinned and come short of the glory of God”. In no way are we humans to be considered God or a god or able to run our affairs without Biblical guidance. The exact opposite of this are the “New” Ager, the socialists/Communists and the Illuminati criminal masters who believe that mankind can and should rule himself and has God like or ‘enlightened’ properties. Often all of these groups rely on “Ascended Masters” or “cosmic messengers” or “spirit guides” for “advice”. One of the more popular happens to be “Master Jesus” or “The Count of Saint Germaine”, our friend RC Christian. God, the real One, specifically forbids the practice of contacting outer worldly entities in multiple instances throughout the Old and New Testaments. So here we have a direct conflict: God, the real One, His angels and His rules as spelled in the Bible or the “mythologies” of the world and its “Ascended Masters” and “spirit guides” (really Biblical demons or “fallen angels”) who tell us that humanity really is a okay and devoid of any need of God, the real One and His pesky rules. Of course when mankind tries to rule himself we always end up with dictator thugs like say Joseph Stalin and Adolf Hitler.

In essence we’ve established a key point: God, the real One versus the “Ascended Masters”, good versus evil, plain and simple.

With the basis of this upside down thought process established, let’s discuss the primary tenet of the belief system of our Illuminati criminal masters, that of “order out of chaos”. This concept is best summarized in the “dirty bird” of the Phoenix: it arises out of the ashes or fire of ‘chaos’ (remember we saw the Phoenix in the Vampires link). Basically, what this says is that society in general needs a shaking out period of wars, famines, economic collapse and overall calamity (i.e., chaos) before we can have “Peace on Earth” or “Paradise Earth”. This “survival of the fittest” is directly out of you guessed it, the THEorY of LIVEvolution. Now most of us in the “imbecile majority” would consider this chaos, death and destruction ‘bad’ but to our ILLUMINATED ones it’s ‘good’ since less “imbecile majority” will be around to control or able to steal wealth and resources. (I don’t want to get too far off track but suffice it to say the idiots in the kook left like the “New” Ager and radical environmental movement actually help foster this whole thing by worshipping 'Mother Earth' and bringing about the famine/economic collapse part of the equation).

With all this in mind let's look at Norse "mythology's" description of the final battle of good versus evil, order out of chaos and where the "dead will come to attack the living":

The Old Norse version of the future is bleak. Norse mythology's vision of the end times is stark and pessimistic: not only are the Norse gods capable of being defeated by residents of Yggdrasil's other branches, but in fact are destined to be defeated...

In the end, it was believed; the forces of chaos will outnumber and overcome the divine and human guardians of the order. Loki and his monstrous children will burst their bonds; the dead will sail from Niflheim to attack the living. Heimdall, the watchman of the gods, will summon the heavenly host with a blast on his horn. Then a final battle will ensue between order and chaos (Ragnarok), which the gods will lose, as is their fate. (6)

We can see from the key words already discussed that this is the "War" described in the Book of Revelation: Michael and his angels versus Satan (or Lucifer the "Angel of Light" or ILLUMINATION). In this description the real bad guys, Loki and his "monstrous children" from "Niflheim" win over "the gods" who would have to be Michael and the other angels of God, the real One. To buttress this point let's quickly discuss "Loki". He is described as "the Norse equivalent to Lucifer" by author Mark Booth in "The Secret History of the World". Ms. Faal describes Loki as "the blood brother of Odin". The equivalent of these two in the Book of Revelation would be Satan/Lucifer (Loki) and Apollo (Odin). Apollo, who is found at the "sun-center" of the Zodiac (see top of new age page) is called "the destroyer" by God, the real One as previously discussed. This also happens to be one of the many titles applied to Osiris (Odin). I also found the usage of the words "burst their bonds" very revealing here. In Revelation God, the real One, utilizes this terminology in Revelation:

And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, 14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates. 15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men. (Verses 9:13-15)

This implies that He really is in control and "burst their bonds" for the final 'battle' which in reality is a lopsided affair in His favor. Nonetheless, Ms. Faal does an excellent job comparing/contrasting Norse "mythology" with Revelation. First, she categorizes the agreements most notably, "An age of catastrophic chaos will herald the end of our present world". This "chaos" is happening as you read this. It is the differences between the two accounts that are worth noting:

1. The rising of the dead in Norse mythology are the ‘monstrous children’ of the god Loki
2. The rising of the dead in the Christian version are the ‘dead in Christ’ belonging to their god Jesus.
3. The sounding of the horn in Norse mythology will herald the battle that the gods will lose.
4. The sounding of the trumpets in the Christian version will herald the destruction of this world in a battle in which the gods will win. (7)

Ms. Faal sums up the contrast that I try to bring out in the opening page of this website with this succinct statement:

Where Norse mythology looks upon the battle of chaos against order as the gods being of, seemingly, evil intention, the Christian perspective is one of righteous destruction of the world at the hands of an avenging god. (8)

So what we have here is Loki (the equivalent of Baal/Satan/Lucifer) and the “dead” (the rebellious fallen angels or nephilim) versus God, the real One (Yahweh, Jehovah, Jesus Christ) and His angels (the angels who didn’t rebel led by the archangel Michael). For some reason the ILLUMINATI and “New” Age crowd has chosen to follow the former since they all believe in “order out of chaos” which is represented by the phoenix rising from the ashes. Another way of saying this is it’s the dawning of “The Age of Aquarius” that was introduced to us by sixties hippy peaceniks which is most ironic since we must have the “chaos” of war, famine and disease prior to Aquarius. And now of course we have the eco wacko “New” Agers in the middle of all this as they propose massive death and genocide to save “Mother Earth” (this concept is covered extensively in Section 3 of “The THEorY of LIVEvolution.).

If this whole mess doesn’t make any sense you would be correct; this is why God, the real One, refers to Satan, “the angel of light” as “a liar and the father of them”. And, hopefully, you can see why God, the real One, must be an “avenging god” since He is having a real tough time trying to get His point across. Remember we’ve associated “RC Christian” with the enlightened or ILLUMINATED god/man of Ancient Egypt in the form of “Thoth” in the Thoth/Hermes/Mercury link. Essentially, this makes “him” the “angel of light” or Satan of the Bible.

Now let’s see yet another example of the universality of our new friend, RC Christian, the ultimate ‘archetype’.

Quetzalcoatl

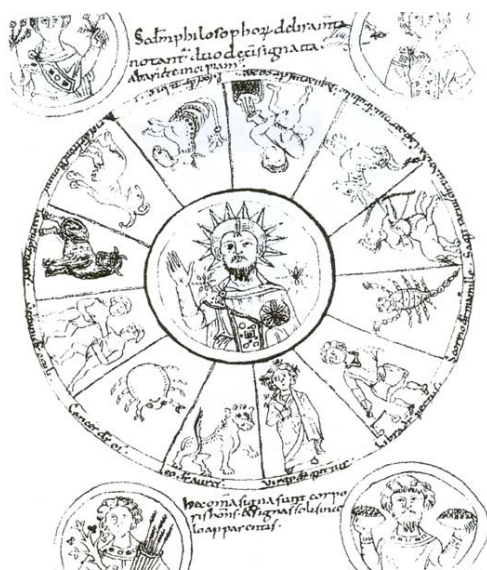

Freemason historian/occultist Manly Hall equates Buddha, Odin and Quetzcoatl as essentially one in the same. He can also be tied directly to Lucifer or “The Angel of Light” who God, the real One, calls “the serpent” since one of his (Quetzalcoatl’s) titles is “feathered serpent”. Additionally, we can quickly tie our new friend RC Christian in to the mix with the letter ‘M’. In The Holy Grail link ‘M’ was associated with....ta da...Christian Rozenkruez or Master 'M'. Also, recall from the Holy Grail link that the geographical pattern of Cathedrals in France built by the Knights Templar matches up with that of the Constellation of Virgo or 'virgin'. This all makes this passage very interesting:

On December 24th, the constellation Virgo the Virgin (the ancient sign for Virgo being the altered letter 'M', for Mary the virgin mother of Jesus, Maya, the virgin Mother of Buddha, etc.) the bright 'Star in the East', Sirius, aligns with the 'Three Kings', Orion's Belt, and points to the exact location where the sun will rise about 1 degree above its previous 3 day 'stationary' position on December 25th, the new birth of sun/son, signaling its triumph, once again over the 'forces' of darkness (9)

Now let's visit with another reliable standby, "New" Age author William Henry. He calls the letter M "the most sacred of all the letters to the Kabbalists". Ahh the Kabbalists, the same crew Jesus Christ, the real One, ran out of the Temple with whips while calling the place "a den of vipers and thieves". Of course if you've read these links in order you're well versed in the Kabala (see link). Recall from the Holy Grail link that FDR's occult minded Secretary of Agriculture sent some of his correspondences to 'G' and 'Master M' who we've determined to be Russian mystic Nicolas Roerich and possibly RC Christian himself. Mr. Henry ties the Mayan culture in with our overall discussion quite nicely:

According to Mayan metaphysicist Hunbatz Men, the letter 'G' at the heart of the spirals stands for egg, zero, essence and the Milky Way Galaxy in Mayan symbolism. The central Healing Sun of our galaxy is a sort of Cosmic 'G' Spot that, properly stimulated, ejects a life regenerating substance in ongoing waves. (10)

Several interesting concepts pop out immediately. First, the Freemasons who believe in the real THEOrY of LIVEvolution (i.e., the accelerated Hitleresque version and not the "scientific" version taught by the Darwinian dumbos) talk of a "cosmic egg" that started it all...the earth, life, the Universe, etc. Second, the Milky Way is known as some kind of "cosmic" water or river whereupon they all get to float away to happy land on their magical boats as typified by the 'nave' portions of your typical Knights Templar inspired Cathedral. Third, we have this "central Healing Sun" that is directly related to "the Christ-Apollo" that sits at "the sun center" of the "circle of the Zodiac" that appears at the top of the new age page and reproduced here for convenience:

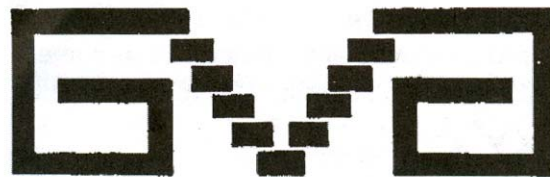

This image is from the book “Alchemy & Mysticism”. Now recall that alchemy is the science of RC Christian. And since “the Christ-Apollo” here is definitely NOT Jesus Christ, the real One, that narrows the field to one candidate, Satan or Lucifer “the angel of light”. And of course the concept of a “central Healing Sun” is one in the same with Thoth/Hermes/Mercury, the offspring of the sun god Ra. This in turn sends us right back to...TA DA....RC Christian. In this particular place the Mayan ‘archetype’ Quetzalcoatl is none other but yet another form of Lucifer, “the Angel of Light” or one of his evil sidekicks like “Apollyn the Destroyer” (i.e., Apollo).

And if this isn’t enough proof of ‘archetype’ the Mayan Quetzalcoatl as Satan (or a closely related entity), here’s a couple of images that are relevant to the next passage:

The Mayan G forms a ladder or stairway (left). Cathar G with the Scala Dei or Ladder to Heaven attached (right).

ORACLE OF THE ILLUMINATI

Two Gs ‘spitting’ ‘ladders’ facing each other form an M.

Images from “Cloak of the Illuminati”

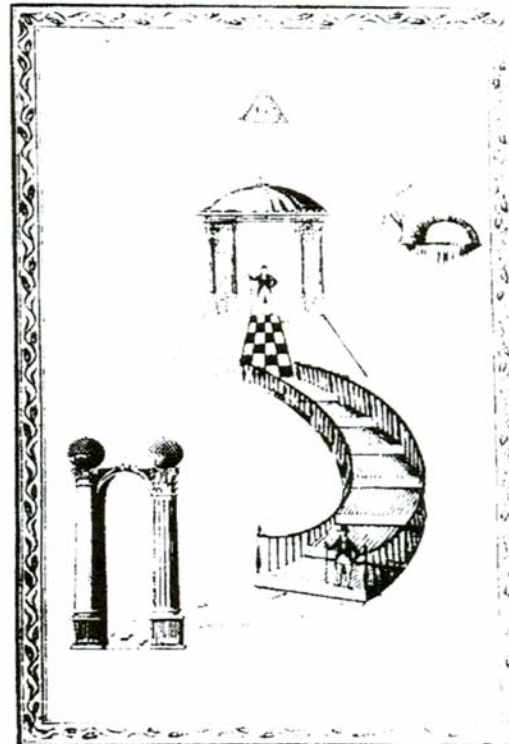

Once again here's William Henry to explain:

In the Mayan Milky Way symbolism, shown here, we see three G spirals. The G spawns a ladder or flight of stairs. Interspersed with the Mayan Gs are matching Cathar serpent Gs, standing for Gnosis and the divine light.

When facing each other the Gs form the letter M in this Mayan glyph. In my view, it represents the union of male and female, Heaven and Earth.

As we can see, the Mayan and Cathar serpent G symbols convey the same message: 'we know about the Milky Way and G-Spot'. I would hypothesize that the Cathars and the Mayans drew from the same wisdom well as the Hindus who used the (orgasmic) expression OM or O-mmmm, to represent the vibrating or 'living' water or wisdom of life oozing from the Milky Way. (11)

There's so much here it's hard to figure out where to begin. Let's start with another image that appeared in "The THEorY of LIVEvolution":

These images depicting "The Stairway to Heaven" (yes the same one as the occult minded Led Zeppelin who dedicated the song to the Greek goddess Diana; an offshoot of the oft mentioned Isis) are quite revealing. They stand at the core of Freemason/Illuminati symbolism which means they're the type of thing that our true criminal masters like to worship. Most of all, they depict the EXACT same thing being described by "New" Age author William Henry above in reference to the Mayan "mythology". Let's briefly categorize.

1. The “G” appearing above the “Stairway to Heaven” on the right refers to “Gnosticism” or the “knowledge” that man can become God, the real One. This is the exact same concept Mr. Henry alludes to in his passage above. This “knowledge” refers to a lie told by a certain serpent in the Garden of Eden.
2. Mr. Henry refers “a ladder or flight” of stairs, the EXACT image depicted in his second image.
3. The tops of both sets of stairways contain a “divine light” or ILLUMINATION that man can become God, the real One. In fact Mr. Henry’s book is entitled “Cloak of the Illuminati”. And of course the term ILLUMINATI, representative of our true criminal shadow government, is discussed at length throughout this website.
4. Mr. Henry refers to “the union of male and female, Heaven and Earth”. This concept is in the Freemason/Illuminati handbook as well. It is represented by the ‘marriage’ of the Egyptian main god Osiris (Father Sky or heaven) and his sister/wife Isis (Mother Earth).
5. The nave portion of Cathedrals worldwide are overlain by a roof structure that mimics the hull of a boat that in turn represents the vehicle for carrying away the ILLUMINATED (i.e., the elite minus the “imbecile majority”) to the “cosmic waters” or “living water” of the Milky Way. The most prominent of these Cathedrals, Saint John the Divine, was financed by the original American criminal gang banker, JP Morgan.

And if this isn’t enough here’s some excerpts from “The Great Invocation” from the latest World Goodwill-Lucis Trust newsletter (this is recited at the beginning of their meetings that occur monthly at each full moon):

From the point of Love within the Heart of God
 Let love steam forth into the hearts of men.
 May Christ* return to Earth.

May the Coming One* return to Earth.

Let Light and Love and Power restore the Plan on Earth.

Omm. Omm. Omm. (This part is hummed at the end.)

*Many religions believe in a World Teacher Who is to come in the future (hence “Coming One”), knowing him under such names as the Lord Maitreya, the Imam Mahdi, the Kalki avatar, etc. (12)

Lucis Trust was started as Lucifer’s Publishing Company and today serves as a non-governmental organization or NGO of the UN-dead. Its founder was Alice Bailey who co-wrote her material with the “Ascended Master” Djwhal Khul. I’ve written extensively about “Mr. Khul”, you may have read “Pleased to meet you, hope you guess my name” right after the introduction page to this website. (Additionally, “he” appears extensively in Section 3 of “The THEorY of LIVEvolution” and the Djwhal Khul link on Mystery, Babylon USA). Most importantly, “he” was quoted in the Holy Grail link here. In that letter “he” apparently has taken over for the “Ascended Masters” Master ‘M’ (Christian Rozenkruez) and Master KH, Helena Blavatsky’s “Ascended Master” Koot Hoomi.

So when this so called “Great Invocation” calls on “Christ” or “the coming One” to “return to Earth” in a place originally called Lucifer’s Publishing Company you can be rest assured they are not calling for Jesus Christ, the real One. And if one takes the Bible as the whole truth this removes the guesswork about who they’re referring to from a choice of 2 consisting of Jesus Christ, the real One and Satan.

William Henry describes a time in 2012 when “the serpent’s rope” will be cast down from the heavens for all those who want to escape the carnage. Essentially he’s telling the same exact story of Norse “legends” and that of the Mayan Quetzalcoatl who is predicted to show up by many accounts on December 21, 2012 (although this date varies slightly). In order to be prepared for this “New” Age ‘rapture’ we must put on “The Cloak of the Illuminati”. In a nutshell, no pun intended, William Henry, like all of the “New” Agers and our ILLUMINATED criminal masters, has chosen the wrong god.

And just in case you’re still not satisfied I’ve read through several books on this whole 2012 ‘event’. And the language, concepts are exactly the same although the names may change slightly. Here’s a brief sampling of three.

Drunvalo Melchizedek is a Cal-Berkely physics student turned “New” Ager from the loon state of California. He showed up in Section 3 of “The THEorY of LIVEvolution” as he was led around by an “Ascended Master” named Thoth. Recall that Thoth is the Ancient Egyptian god of wisdom and one of the archetypes associated with our new friend, RC Christian.

Well Thoth and Drunvalo are back with a book entitled “Serpent of Light Beyond 2012”. Thoth leads Drunvalo literally all over the world in search of...something. But let’s get a few tid bits that prove once again that the radical environmentalists (many of whom seem to reside in California) are nothing but a bunch of Mother Earth worshipping loons whose real goal has a lot more to do with solving the environmental ‘crisis’ with population reduction than anything truly scientific:

Long ago, the angels taught me that when you see a triple number it has significance to what you are thinking or the environment around you...

666 = Earth Consciousness: This is the number of the Beast in the Bible, so it can represent pure evil, but it is also the number of mankind and life. (13)

Actually he’s correct it is “the number of the Beast” and it’s actually related to the number 18, the Georgia Guidestones, Skull and Bones Society and of course our new friend, RC Christian (see 322, the Georgia Guidestones and the eco wackos on the new age page and/or the Kabalah link here).

Here he describes some kind of macabre mission of raising the Mayan dead that reads just like the Norse “legends” of Odin where the dead will sail from Niflheim to “attack the living” described above:

...the Mayan calendar was to end in 2012...In the tradition of the Mayans, the period we are now in will usher in a moment of history called the End of Time...

So our job would be to open the channels for the Mayans in the inner Earth to connect those on the surface in preparation for the final ascension. In so doing, the Unity Consciousness Grid was to become more focused, and the energy of the Serpent of Light high in the Andes Mountains in Chile would grow brighter and stronger.

Whatever the reason, we had been invited by the Mayans, both the living ones and the ancients, to come to Mexico...

By the end of this ceremony, I realized that we were beginning to connect with the Ancient Ones already. I felt them there watching us, feeling us, testing us. (14)

So “ancient ones” are different than “living ones”. Unfortunately this type of thing is very widespread and getting worse these days. Let me say it again: there are absolutely no “spirits of the dead” or anything of the sort; what Drunvalo and his Mayan friends have ‘contacted’ are Satan and his angels. This is why God, the real One, detests necromancy and anything having to do with contacting the so-called “dead”.

Before we leave Drunvalo and his “angels” this passage is a nice tidy summary of the concept of ‘archetypes’ along with two terms we should be familiar with Ka and Ba that in turn link directly to another manifestation of the “undead”, Vampires (see links Pharisees and Kabbalah and Vampires):

The last temple of the day was Kaba. Kaba used to have another name long ago, and this temple is extremely interesting to me since the Maya came from Atlantis where the Jews first entered human consciousness. The original name of Kaba was Kabala, a name that every Jew would recognize as a sacred book of Judaism. It only makes sense when you know the history of the Maya. (15)

Here’s another definition of Quetzalcoatl that makes “him” essentially the Central American equivalent to Osiris in that “he” has become the conglomeration of the “gods” of their “mythology”:

...it was clear that Quetzalcoatl was not just a god, but a multiple god; not just a man, but many men, not just a religion but a mythic complex...And it was also clear that this constellation of features, this multiple presence informed almost every aspect of ancient Mexican and even Mayan Civilization. Not just the arts, but astronomy and the calendar were affected by Quetzalcoatl, who was strongly associated with the morning and evening star, the planet Venus. (16)

Recall that Lucifer, or Satan is also “strongly associated” with Venus. Interestingly, a little bit later this particular author mentions that Quetzalcoatl is “the presumed founder of the city of Tula”. The aforementioned William Henry claims that “Tula” was yet another manifestation of “Legendary” Atlantis. It was also a place that housed a group of “enlightened” or ILLUMINATED god/man beings known as “The Great White Brotherhood”. In Section 3 of “The THEorY of LIVEvolution” I documented how the “Ascended Master” The Count of Saint Germain (yes, our new friend RC Christian yet again) spoke very highly of this “Great White Brotherhood” of enlightened or ILLUMINATED god like beings in charge of humanity. Oh yeah, occult minded Adolf Hitler was obsessed in finding this Tula place – which put him in direct competition with FDR and his occult minded Secretary of Agriculture, the oft mentioned Henry Wallace who in turn wrote to Master ‘M’ who we’ve already identified as....RC Christian.

Isn’t this fun?

Remember in the archetypes link in the beginning where I said the “New” Age is one big, self-contradicting mess? Well now we have “New” Ager Christine R. Page implying that the creator of the universe is female as in the title of her book: “2012 and the Galactic Center: The Return of the Great Mother”. Obviously if this whole kumbayah “Age of Aquarius” Freemason nirvana is going to happen we’re supposed to have the union of male and female, ying and yang, Father Sky with Mother Earth, et. al. This may seem trivial but it’s kind of funny how everyone else says, erroneously, that the Bible is full of errors when these “New” Age clowns can’t even figure out who their “god” really is. But again this should come as no surprise since tracking their “Ascended Master” the god/spirit/man RC Christian is like trying to catch...well a ghost.

Anyway, her book is the same conglomeration of items already copiously discussed further clarifying the concept of archetypes. That is any god that’s not God, the real One or His human existence, Jesus Christ, the real One is directly traceable to the “gods” of “mythology” or Satan himself. Ms. Page does bring up some interesting viewpoints on a few things that are worth mentioning however.

Here’s RC Christian, the one that claims to have built the Georgia Guidestones:

“When Man Awakens Let Him Behold....The Georgia Guidestones” that I photocopied at the Elberton Library (as there is only one copy available):

They mark the extreme positions of the rising and the setting of the sun in its cycle of 18.6 years. They surround a central stone which is oriented north and south. This stone contains ports aligned with the celestial pole and with the paths of the sun and the moon as they cross the horizon. The central stone also marks the passing of the sun at noontime throughout the year.

Now here’s Ms. Page:

It takes approximately 18.6 years – nineteen eclipse years – for the moon’s nodes to regress one complete revolution through all the signs. This cycle was considered extremely important in Celtic and Mayan mythology because it acknowledged the deep relationship between the cycles of the moon and the eternal source of creativity.

It is only after fifty-six years that...the eclipse is seen both within the same sign and in the same location.

From archaeology, we can determine that the builders of ancient sacred sites knew about this cycle. When the first phase of Stonehenge was erected during the latter part of the fourth millennium BCE, the builders dug fifty-six holes that housed moveable wooden posts just inside the outer earth bank surrounding the site. (17)

Besides the obvious mathematical similarity of these “eclipse cycles” notice the mentioning of Stonehenge. It is not the purpose here to investigate the ability of these so-called Ancients but suffice it to say the “experts” still can’t figure out how they managed to transport stones weighing over 10 tons distances exceeding over a hundred miles with astronomical exactness that rivals today’s best astronomers. What’s important to realize here besides the obvious direct connection to “America’s Stonehenge”, the Georgia Guidestones, is the tie back once again back to Odin and Norse “legends”. Those responsible for Stonehenge was a mysterious group of nature worshipping priests known as the Druids who would have obviously been well versed in Norse and Northern European “legends” like say Loki (Lucifer) leading the “dead” to “attack the living”.

Throughout this website I keep coming across the concept of twin columns and how they represent the doorway or entry to “the stairway to heaven” (in fact scroll back a few pages to refresh your memory). Here’s Ms. Page’s take on this familiar concept:

Although Adam and Eve were thrown out of the Garden, we are left with a key to remind us how to return: “He placed at the east of the Garden of Eden cherubim and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life” (Genesis 3:24). One of the many possible interpretations of this is that the path to rebirth is via the east, as symbolized by the placement of the pillars of Jachin and Boaz. (18)

In another instance Ms. Page refers to the two columns as representing the uniting of the two kingdoms of Upper and Lower Egypt. Now this is where the “New” Agers and their religious allies the Illuminati/Freemason complex must come to a complete standstill. How the hell, pun intended, can this be when God, the real One, in no uncertain terms relays his hatred for the entire Osiris (i.e. Satan) run country? Do the 10 plagues registered against Egypt prior to the Exodus not mean anything? It’s almost comical to listen to people lambaste the Bible then cherry pick it apart as they see fit for their own agenda.

These people are insane. It is perhaps no surprise that Ms. Page in a discussion about Carl Jung quips “...that spiritual evolution is limited severely when viewed only through the lens of the logical mind”. Talking about insane she mentions “a master alchemist born around 1560 CE” named St. Germain. Chalk up yet another birthdate for our new friend, RC Christian.

Finally, Ms. Page offers this take on “Aquarius”:

It is through this union that the Djed is raised, the Ba is drawn down to create the release of amrita, the Ka is illuminated, and the oneness of immortality achieved.
(19)

So we’re right back to the concept of Ka and Ba that tie in to the undead world of the Vampire (see Vampire link) not to mention the raising of the “Djed” or dead.

And of course in all of the previous links as well as this one here (as shown above) we discussed the concept of twin columns as representing some kind of stairway to heaven or enlightened or illuminated god-being. Also, the rising star of the east is associated with Lucifer, “The Angel of Light” or Satan and “The Age of Aquarius” is really a deceptive ploy for the one world slave state predicted in Revelation by God, the real One.

Yet here we are once again:

So here we have Obama talking between the two columns, the night after his 'buddy' Al Gore, de facto high priest of the genocidal eco wackos strolled out to the song "Age of Aquarius". And of course his symbol representing a rising or Eastern sun (or son of god).

The Mother of Buddha (recall this mother and son or sun concept from the archetypes link) was known as 'Maya' or "illusion". And this piece of intellectual marvel appears in a book entitled "Zen to Go":

When one sees that everything exists as an illusion, one can live in a higher sphere than ordinary man. – The Buddha

One can see Hitler hero Madame Blavatsky's outlook on ILLUMINATION here, some will get it, some will never light "the divine spark" within. Wholesale murder of the second group becomes okay since they haven't "evolved" yet. Again, this is Satan or "The Angel of Light" at his deceptive best. Take hold of a movement that on its surface has some good points and even good intentions, disguise it as something for 'the common good' for Madison Avenue (i.e., saving the earth from "global warming) but underneath in reality it's evil beyond reproach (i.e., genocide). In a nutshell, no pun intended, if "Mother Earth" is our new "Great Mother" or "goddess" than knocking off a few billion "illusions" to save "her" isn't so bad.

(This pattern of deception also applies to the ultimate man is God system itself. Communism, facism, Progressivism are all for the "collective good" but always end up in an Orwellian slave state).

I can go on but here's the point: Lucifer/The Angel of Light of Freemasonry = Satan = Buddha = Quetzalcoatl = The Great Mother = Odin = Osiris = any other 'archetype' of the world that's not Jesus Christ, the real One. Hence they all represent "the spirit of anti-Christ". Today this conglomeration of wackism can be found in the radical environmental movement.

Now apparently "our" very own President (who we're still not sure where he was even born) has gotten in on the act of man is god; except he has crowned himself with that honor. I know this appears copiously throughout this website but...

WATCH OUT FOR THIS GUY.

God, the real One, help us all.
